Alabama Chief Sees Nation Torn by Strife

Wallace Is Firm In Opposition to Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. George Wallace of Alabama said today that inept handling of racial problems by the Kennedy administration has resulted in "a nation torn by strife and turmoil on the brink of civil warfare."

Wallace who failed in his "schoolroom door" stand against integration at the University of Alabama, said that if Congress passes a public accommodations bill, "You should make preparations to withdraw all our troops from Berlin, Viet Nam and the rest of the world because they will be needed to police America."

Wallace's remarks were in a statement prepared for the Senate Commerce Committee. It resumed hearings today on one of the seven points in President Kennedy's civil rights program—a bill prohibiting racial discrimination in such public facilities as restaurants and hotels.

Wallace said Americans "are not going to comply with this type legislation," and he labeled the rest of Kennedy's civil rights program "equally abominable."

"A President who sponsors legislation such as the civil rights act of 1963 should be retired from office," Wallace said, predicting that Kennedy will learn in the 1964 election "it is not politically popular to send (troops) to Alabama and Mississippi."

Kennedy ordered federal troops into Oxford, Miss., last fall after rioting broke out on the University of Mississippi campus when a Negro enrolled in the school. He sent federal troops to bases near Birmingham in May following racial violence in the Alabama city.

Wallace echoed the charge of another Southern governor, Ross Barnett of Mississippi who testified against the measure Friday, in telling the committee that "there are Communist influences in the integration movement."

Wallace said two congressional committees have identified the Southern Conference Educational Fund headed by the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, Alabama Negro integration leader, as an organization created "to promote communism" in the South.

He said the identifications were made by the Senate Internal (Continued on Page 2)

Face-Saving Memo Hinted From Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—Diplomats predict the Soviet and Communist Chinese negotiators will conclude their deadlocked ideological talks soon with a meaningful face-saving communique assuring that time will heal the differences in the Communist camp.

The seriousness of the split between the Communist giants was emphasized by publication Saturday of a 35,000-word Soviet Communist party statement accusing the Chinese of being hypocrites and warmongers bent on a nuclear war with the West.

The Soviet statement, an open of the world, was an official reply to the Chinese attack June 14 on Premier Khrushchev's policy of spreading communism by living in peace with the West. It was spread over four pages of the party newspaper Pravda.

Pravda also published the Communist Chinese letter, disclosing to the Soviet people for the first time the extent of the historic breach in the Communist movement.

The Soviet statement vigorously restated Moscow's opposition to Peking's hard line and defended Khrushchev's arguments that communism can overcome capitalism through peaceful competition.

THE QUIET BEFORE ANOTHER STORM? — All is quiet and calm in the racially troubled town of Cambridge, Md. as SP4 Glen D. Nash stands guard on Race Street enforcing limited martial law. Negro leaders announced that street marches which precipitated the militia law edict will resume Monday in an effort to break down racial barriers.

Maryland Chief Calls Parley To Help Settle Racial Fuss

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) — Gov. J. Millard Tawes invited officials of this racially scarred city of 12,200 to meet with him today in the state capital of Annapolis.

Semiparalyzed by racial strife and a resultant military clampdown, officials of the Southern-oriented city had asked the governor to come here quickly for discussions of its problems.

They said they wanted to talk to Tawes about the hardships imposed by militia law, invoked after six white persons were wounded in a wave of violence last week.

Mayor Calvin W. Mowbray and other officials got off their wire to the governor with 400 National Guardsmen posted at trouble spots and business plummeting.

"The restrictions imposed by the National Guard are being used to penalize the majority in our county for the faults of the few—Negro and white," said Dr. Arthur Parker, president of the City Council. "It is time for our elected officials to seize the offensive."

In New York, the leader of a Neo-Nazi party and six other members were arrested on charges of trying to incite a riot at a Bronx diner where racial violence broke out last week.

The seven were accused of being members of the National Renaissance party described in 1954 by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as "clearly subversive and un-American."

Six of those arrested also were charged with anarchy. Police said a cache of weapons and ammunition was found in a truck that had been driven by three of the men.

At the capitol in Albany, N.Y., about 400 persons gathered to pay tribute to Medgar Evers, Negro integration leader slain in Jackson, Miss. A proclamation by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was read to the crowd.

In a television interview in Washington, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said plans are being made for a nationwide boycott of chain stores that discriminate among customers or employees.

He said the boycott would be launched after a scheduled mass march on Washington Aug. 28.

Negro leaders in Savannah, Ga. predicted an easing of racial tensions that resulted in two nights of rioting last week.

The Rev. James Bevel, a leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, praised city officials for their efforts to work out a settlement. A Negro march was called off Sunday.

The President of the Northern Christian Leadership Conference said in Chicago that his group is dissolving, along with conferences in the East and West.

The Rev. Dr. C. William Billingslea, pastor of Damascus Baptist Church, said the groups advised Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. of their action and offered him their charters. Billingslea urged King to teach more of Christ and less of Gandhi.

Sheldon flew near the party at the 17,000-foot level and the climbers indicated all was well and they were continuing the climb. Sheldon spotted the group Sunday morning after a three-day search.

Sheldon, accompanied by a Civil Air Patrol observer, was unable to land the plane at 17,000 feet. He said the mountain was obscured by clouds. He was unable to talk with the climbers and all communication was by prearranged signals.

The CAP official, L. Tyree, said the climbers probably would take two more days to reach the 19,470-foot north summit of McKinley.

TALKEETNA, Alaska (AP) — Seven Harvard University climbers are in good shape and still scaling Mt. McKinley's Wickersham Wall, veteran bush pilot Don Sheldon reported this morning.

West, Soviet Optimistic About Nuclear Test Ban

Liberal-Tory Fight Sought By Rockefeller

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to an all-out liberal vs. conservative fight for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

In a policy statement tantamount to announcing his candidacy, the New York governor said Sunday the Goldwater strategy is to try to weld conservative, Southern and Western support while writing off Northern states. This, Rockefeller said, "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Rockefeller said it was incredible that the Republicans would offer such an alternative to "unprincipled opportunism that has captured the Democratic party."

He added: "That alternative will never be found in a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it even starts its campaign for their support."

Goldwater, who was not named in the statement, made no immediate responses. But associates said they interpreted Rockefeller's attack as a declaration of war they were certain the senator would accept, even though he remains an unannounced belligerent.

They added that if Goldwater is writing off the industrial North as Rockefeller charged, the New York governor is giving up on Republican chances to collect electoral votes in the South.

Rockefeller's blast is regarded in Washington as the opening gun of a vigorous comeback campaign for the nomination. He was considered by many observers the leading contender until his recent marriage to a divorced mother of four children.

In the period between his reelection as governor last year and his remarriage, Rockefeller tried with some success to warm up the conservatives to his cause by making what many of his listeners called "good Republican speeches" in the Midwest.

But the New York governor's attack on what he said were extremist views in the party indicated he has decided his best chance for the nomination is to champion the liberal viewpoint and sharpen his division with the conservatives.

This seemed to leave open the middle ground where Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, said Sunday Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., comes (Continued on Page 2)

3 Children Lose Cash, Are Slain

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three runaway foster children were shot to death in a 7,000-foot high Arizona pine forest next to busy U.S. Route 96 because they had lost $150.

The man who gave them the money — a lifelong acquaintance — admitted Sunday he killed the three Negro children.

Today Robert Alford, also a Negro, is on his way back to Williams where Arizona authorities have charged him on three counts of murder.

Sunday night he stayed overnight in Stockton, Calif., where May 27 he had picked up the children.

Arizona investigator Denny G. Smith said the children were en route with Alford to Wewoka, Okla., when the shootings occurred.

Smith said Alford claims he remembers only that he reached for two pistols he had under the seat and then "coming to" sitting in a road, an empty gun in each hand.

The children, Carol Ann McCain, 14, and Teddy, 13, and Jacqueline Walker, 11, had gone willingly with Alford, Smith said.

Unemployment Seen Chilling Any Gains in Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's top economist warned today that the Negro drive for civil rights and job equality will be "frustrated and frustrating" unless the country provides millions of new jobs.

Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers said Negro unemployment—now, double the white rate—will fall twice as fast as that of whites if a tax cut paves the way to full employment.

By providing equal hiring opportunities, the nation can expand its output by $14.5 billion a year, Heller told The Associated Press in an interview.

The question-and-answer text: Q. Mr. chairman, would you say that the civil rights problem is in large part an economic problem?

A. Well, civil rights don't mean much without economic rights—without the right, and above all, the opportunity to get a self-respecting job.

Q. In that connection, you said recently in effect that full employment means more to non-whites than to any other major group. Why?

A. The answer is very simple, and is found in the unemployment rates today. For Negroes, unemployment is over 10 per cent. For whites it's about 5 per cent. When over-all unemployment falls, we find from past experience that the rate for Negroes falls twice as fast as the rate for whites. So it's crystal clear that the Negro has a huge stake in successful policies for full employment.

Q. Is it fairly predictable that Negro joblessness will drop twice as fast as white, given a general improvement in jobs?

A. Let me give you chapter and verse. First, let's look at the rec-

Death Claims Mrs. Crites Early Today

Mrs. Gwendolyn J. Crites, 57, of 139 W. Franklin St., died 2:45 a.m. today in Berger Hospital.

Mrs. Crites, one of Circleville's most prominent residents, had been ill for several months. She was the wife of Meinhardt M. Crites who survives.

A member of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Mrs. Crites was born July 18, 1905 at Washington C. H., the daughter of Roscoe and Alta Brock Baughn.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Virginia Hannan, 574 N. Pickaway St., and one sister, Mrs. Virginia Replogle, Northridge Road.

SERVICES will be 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the residence with pastor Carl Zehner officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery by the Mader Funeral Home.

Friends may call at the residence beginning 1 p.m. tomorrow and 1 p.m. Wednesday.

2 Americans Hurt In Saigon Battle

SIAGON (AP)—Two Americans were injured and 63 Communist guerrillas killed in a daylong battle described as the worst ever fought near Saigon between government and Red forces.

Military sources placed government casualties at 26 killed, and 51 wounded.

The two Americans injured, were not immediately identified. Only skimpy details were reported on the battle, which occurred Saturday in Long An Province, 20 miles southwest of Saigon.

Military sources said the battle started when government troops in helicopters encountered a barrage of groundfire.

Weekend Busy One for Police; Burglary Suspect Apprehended

Apprehension of a burglary suspect, the recovery of two stolen cars and an attempt to open a night depository box amounted to a busy weekend for Circleville Police.

Nabbed at the scene of a burglary attempt at the Mecca Restaurant, 128 W. Main St., was Claude Godby, 31, who listed his address as 711 N. Court St. The apprehension was made after Patrolman Homer Adams, while on routine patrol, noticed an open door at the rear of the restaurant.

Godby also will be charged with stealing a car owned by Mrs. Hal Dickinson, 209 N. Scioto St. Officers found the auto parked near the rear of the restaurant.

The open door was discovered by Patrolman Adams at 4:23 a.m. Sunday. Sgt. Roderick List and Patrolman Larry Pontious were summoned to aid Adams in checking out the building.

GODBY was taken into custody by Sgt. List in an upstairs area over the restaurant. He was found after the police sergeant investigated a noise coming from the overhead area.

Cigars and other tobaccos were found stacked on a table in the back hallway of the restaurant. Two fifths of whiskey and additional tobacco were found laid out in the dining room area.

According to police interrogation Godby admitted that he planned to use the stolen car to haul away the loot.

Sgt. List said Godby was found hiding behind a box. He said no weapons were found on the man.

The 1959 model car was taken from its parking place at the Dickinson home.

The attempt to force a night deposit box was made at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. office, 134 N. Court St. the theft try was discovered by

Ohio's Crops Prospects Look Brighter

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Major Ohio crop prospects appear brighter than last year despite subnormal rainfall, the Ohio Crop Reporting Service said today.

Agricultural statistician James R. Kendall noted that wheat, corn and oats account for most of the predicted increase.

Record-low fruit production partially offsets expected gains in field crops, he added.

The July report indicated a corn yield of 218 million bushels up nearly 8 per cent over last year and about 11 per cent above the average.

Corn yield was estimated at 75 bushels an acre, only one bushel below last year's record high.

Prospects for wheat were 49 million bushels, up 27 per cent over a year ago and 22 per cent higher than the average.

Oats were expected to exceed 49 million bushels.

When the over-all unemployment rate rose 2 points, from 1957 to 1958, Negro unemployment rose 4.6 per cent; and from 1960 to '61, over-all unemployment rose 11 points, while Negro unemployment rose 2.3 points. A DOOR on the box from where payment envelopes are obtained was forced off its hinges. The small door where the envelopes are deposited was tampered with, but was not opened.

A search of the building by Gas Co. employe Ernest (Snap) Ankrom and Patrolman Barton disclosed that entry was not made to the office.

A second stolen car incident was reported yesterday by owner Orin Eitel, 1142 Atwater Ave. He said the 1956 model auto was taken from the BPO Elks parking lot.

The theft ended up with a strange twist. The car was returned to the parking lot several hours later, apparently by the subject or subjects who had stolen the vehicle.

Sgt. List said the auto was found after officers had made five or six checks at the lot since the theft was first reported.

Once Around Roundtown

THE "million dollar" rainfall Saturday night, welcomed by the residents of Circleville and Pickaway County, officially measured .66 inches according to the local weather forecasting station.

The rainfall is still behind 9 inches for the month of July. Field crops and lawns are showing the effects of the drought locally. . . . More rain is needed. . . .

The cool weather that accompanied the rain was received with pleasure by many.

White Peoples Group Falters

CINCINNATI (AP)—Only about 15 persons showed up for the first meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, but William F. Miller, president of the group, says far more people support it.

Miller said after the first meeting Sunday that it had about 300 members. He said the group hopes to become a national "watchdog" for the white race.

The NAAWP says its objects are "to promote, to aid, to sustain and defend our American form of government; to keep the general public aware of the elements which seek to impair and destroy their government; to promote the social, educational and general welfare of the Caucasian race."

Khrush Jovial At Opening Of Conference

MOSCOW (AP) — Jovial and apparently optimistic, Premier Khrushchev personally opened talks today on a limited nuclear test ban agreement with special envoys of President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sitting in a Kremlin conference room with U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman shoved a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

The conference is expected to last 10 days.

Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Both Western and Communist circles seemed optimistic about chances of agreeing on a ban of nuclear tests in the air, in space and under water.

Such a pact could be readily policed because nuclear explosions under any of these conditions can be detected from great distances. It would also outlaw the tests which produce radioactive nuclear fallout.

Khrushchev in a speech in East Berlin July 2 approved a Western proposal for an unpoliced partial ban. Underground tests were exempted to avoid the thorny issue of on-site inspection.

At the time Khrushchev approved a partial test ban, he revived the Soviet proposal for a non-aggression treaty between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw Pact alliance. He said the test ban and the non-aggression pact should be signed simultaneously, but U.S. officials were not sure that he was making a non-aggression treaty the price of a test ban.

Western observers expected the opening round of the secret three-power talks at the Kremlin would clarify whether Khrushchev would insist on the two treaties as a package deal.

Harriman and Hailsham made it clear on their arrival Sunday that they were not authorized to negotiate a non-aggression pact.

Western opposition to the non-aggression pact stems partly from the fact that it would tend to seal the division of Germany and force Western recognition of Communist East Germany.

Khrushchev appeared to have cleared the way for a test ban accord by administering a huge blast last week for leadership in the Communist camp.

A 35,000-word letter on the Soviet ideological dispute with Red China, published here Sunday, vigorously rejected Peking's militant stand and defended Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence line.

'I'm Not Gonna Quit,' Happy Chandler Says

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP)—A.B. (Happy) Chandler declared "I'm not gonna quit" as he reached the retirement age of 65 Sunday.

"We'll stand up and fight again," the Democratic politician added in talking with friends gathered on his lawn at Versailles, Ky.

Chandler — twice governor of Kentucky, once a U.S. senator and a former baseball commissioner — ran unsuccessfully for the Democratic nomination for governor in the May 28 primary.

STAR CITY, Ark. (AP) — Seven Arkansas couples tied the wedding knot a second time Sunday when they were remarried in a brief mass wedding at Star City, Ark.

The couples remarried to comply with a 1941 Arkansas law which makes void marriages in which the bride is under 16 or the groom under 18 years old.

The wedding was the largest of a rash of remarriages resulting from a Social Security Administration announcement that it would not pay wives or widows the 19,470-foot north summit of McKinley.

The man who gave them the money — a lifelong acquaintance — admitted Sunday he killed the three Negro children.

Today Robert Alford, also a Negro, is on his way back to Williams where Arizona authorities have charged him on three counts of murder.

Sunday night he stayed overnight in Stockton, Calif., where May 27 he had picked up the children.

Arizona investigator Dennis G. Smith said the children were en route with Alford to Wewoka, Okla., when the shootings occurred.

Smith said Alford claims he remembers only that he reached for two pistols he had under the seat and then "coming to" sitting in a road, an empty gun in each hand.

The children, Carol Ann McCain, 14, and Teddy, 13, and Jacqueline Walker, 11, had gone willingly with Alford, Smith said.

Unemployment Seen Chilling Any Gains in Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's top economist warned today that the Negro drive for civil rights and job equality will be "frustrated and frustrating" unless the country provides millions of new jobs.

Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers said Negro unemployment—now, double the white rate—will fall twice as fast as that of whites if a tax cut paves the way to full employment.

By providing equal hiring opportunities, the nation can expand its output by $14.5 billion a year, Heller told The Associated Press in an interview.

The question-and-answer text: Q. Mr. chairman, would you say that the civil rights problem is in large part an economic problem?

A. Well, civil rights don't mean much without economic rights—without the right, and above all, the opportunity to get a self-respecting job.

Q. In that connection, you said recently in effect that full employment means more to non-whites than to any other major group. Why?

A. The answer is very simple, and is found in the unemployment rates today. For Negroes, unemployment is over 10 per cent. For whites it's about 5 per cent. When over-all unemployment falls, we find from past experience that the rate for Negroes falls twice as fast as the rate for whites. So it's crystal clear that the Negro has a huge stake in successful policies for full employment.

Q. Is it fairly predictable that Negro joblessness will drop twice as fast as white, given a general improvement in jobs?

A. Let me give you chapter and verse. First, let's look at the record when unemployment goes up.

When the over-all unemployment rate rose 2 points, from 1957 to 1958, Negro unemployment rose 4.6 per cent; and from 1960 to '61, over-all unemployment rose 1.1 points, while Negro unemployment rose 2.3 points. Now let's see what happens when unemployment drops: from 1958 to 1960, when unemployment overall declined 1.1 per cent, Negro unemployment dropped 2.4 percentage points; Again, from 1961 to '63, the ratio was exactly 2 to 1.

Q. Does this imply that while there have been gains in Negro education and integration, there hasn't been much economic improvement?

A. I think it demonstrates that the progress has been much too slow. Its true that the educational gap between Negroes and white has been shrinking. Yet for the decade 1950 to 1960, we find that the income gap has not narrowed at all.

Job discrimination is dramatically reflected in the poverty figures. Over one-half of our Negroes are in poverty status.

Q. What do you consider poverty status?

A. $3,000 of family income, or below. By that standard, it's appalling to find that over half of our Negro families are in poverty status, as against something less than one-fifth for whites.

Q. Do you believe that there is (Continued on Page 2)

Apprehension of a burglary suspect, the recovery of two stolen cars and an attempt to open a night depository box amounted to a busy weekend for Circleville Police.

Nabbed at the scene of a burglary attempt at the Mecca Restaurant, 128 W. Main St., was Claude Godby, 31, who listed his address as 711 N. Court St. The apprehension was made after Patrolman Homer Adams, while on routine patrol, noticed an open door at the rear of the restaurant.

Godby also will be charged with stealing a car owned by Mrs. Hal Dickinson, 209 N. Scioto St. Officers found the auto parked near the rear of the restaurant.

The open door was discovered by Patrolman Adams at 4:23 a.m. Sunday. Sgt. Roderick List and Patrolman Larry Pontious were summoned to aid Adams in checking out the building.

GODBY WAS taken into custody by Sgt. List in an upstairs area over the restaurant. He was found after the police sergeant investigated a noise coming from the overhead area.

Cigars and other tobacco were found stacked on a table in the back hallway of the restaurant. Two fifths of whiskey and additional tobacco were found laid out in the dining room area.

According to police interrogation Godby admitted that he planned to use the stolen car to haul away the loot.

Sgt. List said Godby was found hiding behind a box. He said no weapons were found on the man.

The 1959 model car was taken from its parking place at the Dickinson home.

The attempt to force a night deposit box was made at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. office, 134 N. Court St. The theft try was discovered by

THE "million dollar" rainfall Saturday night, welcomed by the residents of Circleville and Pickaway County, officially measured .66 inches according to the local weather forecasting station.

The rainfall is still behind 8 inches for the month of July. Field crops and lawns are showing the effects of the drought locally. More rain is needed.

The cool weather that accompanied the rain was received with pleasure by many.

Ohio's Crops Prospects Look Brighter

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Major Ohio crop prospects appear brighter than last year despite subnormal rainfall, the Ohio Crop Reporting Service said today.

Agricultural statistician James R. Kendall noted that wheat, corn and oats account for most of the predicted increase.

Record-low fruit production partially offsets expected gains in field crops, he added.

The July report indicated a corn yield of 218 million bushels up nearly 8 per cent over last year and about 11 per cent above the average.

Corn yield was estimated at 75 bushels an acre, only one bushel below last year's record high.

Prospects for wheat were 49 million bushels, up 27 per cent over a year ago and 22 per cent higher than the average.

Oats were expected to exceed 49 million bushels.

Khrush Jovial At Opening Of Conference

MOSCOW (AP) — Jovial and apparently optimistic, Premier Khrushchev personally opened talks today on a limited nuclear test ban agreement with special envoys of President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sitting in a Kremlin conference room with U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman shoved a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

The conference is expected to last 10 days.

Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Both Western and Communist circles seemed optimistic about chances of agreeing on a ban of nuclear tests in the air, in space and under water.

Such a pact could be readily policed because nuclear explosions under any of these conditions can be detected from great distances. It would also outlaw the tests which produce radioactive nuclear fallout.

Khrushchev in a speech in East Berlin July 2 approved a Western proposal for an unpoliced partial ban. Underground tests were exempted to avoid the thorny issue of on-site inspection.

At the time Khrushchev approved a partial test ban, he revived the Soviet proposal for a non-aggression treaty between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw Pact alliance. He said the test ban and the non-aggression pact should be signed simultaneously, but U.S. officials were not sure that he was making a non-aggression treaty the price of a test ban.

Western observers expected the opening round of the secret three-power talks at the Kremlin would clarify whether Khrushchev would insist on the two treaties as a package deal.

Harriman and Hailsham made it clear on their arrival Sunday that they were not authorized to negotiate a non-aggression pact.

Western opposition to the non-aggression pact stems partly from the fact that it would tend to seal the division of Germany and force Western recognition of Communist East Germany.

Khrushchev appeared to have cleared the way for a test ban accord by administering a huge blast last weekend at his Chinese rivals for leadership in the Communist camp.

A 35,000-word letter on the Soviet ideological dispute with Red China, published here Sunday, vigorously rejected Peking's militant stand and defended Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence line.

'I'm Not Gonna Quit,' Happy Chandler Says

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP)—A.B. (Happy) Chandler declared "I'm not gonna quit" as he reached the retirement age of 65 Sunday.

"We'll stand up and fight again," the Democratic politician added in talking with friends gathered on his lawn at Versailles, Ky.

Chandler — twice governor of Kentucky, one a U.S. senator and a former baseball commissioner — ran unsuccessfully for the Democratic nomination for governor in the May 28 primary.

WCC Receives Medical Gear

Patients of Former Local MD are Donors

The Well Child Conference of Pickaway County is the recipient of a number of pieces of medical equipment, Mrs. Jasper Hedges, chairman of the executive board, announced yesterday.

Money for the equipment, which includes a folding treatment table, otoscope, percussion hammer, professional flashlight, sphygmometer and stethoscope, was given by former patients of Dr. Henry H. Swope in his honor. Dr. Swope is presently in Medical practice at the Yellowstone Clinic in Glendive, Montana.

The Well Child Conference was founded in 1959, and the first clinic was held in April of that year. Dr. Swope, who at that time was a member of the City Board of Health, was one of those instrumental in organizing its services.

Since its inception four years ago, the Well Child Conference has served 581 children, between the ages of two months and six years, providing for them immunizations, routine medical examinations by local doctors and dentists, with follow-up medical treatment and surgical or dental corrections for families without adequate financial resources.

The WCC is staffed by volunteers from the Pickaway County Medical and Dental Associations, the County Nurses Association, the local Gray Ladies and community volunteers. It is held the second Wednesday of every month in the Guild Room of Berger Hospital beginning at 9 a. m. Children are accepted for the clinic on referral basis from their family physician or by reason of being on one of the Welfare Programs.

Funds for yearly operation of the WCC are provided by the Pickaway County Community Fund. Members of the Executive Board are:

Labor Chief Sees Rail Fuss Bringing Compulsory Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz says the four-year-old dispute over railroad work rules is headed toward a compulsory solution because both the carriers and the unions are guilty of "a failure of responsibility."

"There is no affirmative attempt by either side in this situation," the secretary said in a televised interview.

Wallace accused the nation's leaders of betraying the Negro with false promises of a Utopia in Northern cities.

Wallace's appearance followed a statement Sunday by a civil rights leader that national chain stores which discriminate racially in their employment or service policies will be boycotted.

James L. Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said he expected the boycott to begin shortly after a mass march on Washington—planned for Aug. 28—to press for civil rights legislation.

Farmer, a Negro, told Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., in an interview taped for broadcast in New York that some nationwide firms had agreed to end discrimination in employment and service. But a boycott is planned against other "offending firms," mainly department and variety stores, he said.

Farmer said there was no intention of having Negroes who march on Washington stage sit-ins at Capitol offices. But he added that in event of a filibuster by Southern senators "I think some drastic action might have to be taken."

He said if Congress takes a recess in late August, "this would be indeed a new form of filibuster."

$15,000 Suit Filed Here

A $15,000 lawsuit has been filed against Mrs. Bernice J. Cummins, Asheville, as the administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Charles E. Cummins.

Plaintiff of the suit is Mrs. Stella Morrison, Asheville, executrix of the estate of her late husband, Frank B. Morrison.

Mrs. Morrison's husband died Oct. 16, 1961, as the result of injuries received when he was struck by a motorcycle driven by Mrs. Cummins' husband, Cummins, fire chief of the Asheville-Harrison Volunteer Fire Department at that time, was on a practice run when the accident occurred.

The Morrison petition claims Cummins was negligent in not providing the assured clear distance ahead; gave no warning and had no light in operation on the motorcycle.

Mrs. Morrison alleges that she made a claim in the amount of $15,000 on April 30, 1963, against the Cummins estate, and the claim was denied.

Harry Margulis, Asheville attorney, represents Mrs. Morrison in the court action.

Couple Charged With Child Neglect

A Circleville couple pleaded guilty Friday to charges of neglecting their four minor children in Pickaway County Juvenile Court.

Judge Robert Hastings of Fairfield County heard the case for vacationing Judge Guy Cline. Judge Hastings continued the case until this Friday to pronounce sentence.

Three children of the defendants Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dennis, N. Scioto St., were turned over to the Child Welfare Board on a temporary basis, according to court records.

Giving testimony during the hearing were Mrs. Pauline Kirkpatrick, city health nurse, and Dr. Manuel Sanguly, local physician. The court hearing was ordered following an investigation of the home by Ruth Neff and Ralph Starkey, court officials.

ation to do anything about setting it even at this hour," Wirtz said Sunday as a special presidential panel prepared to sift the facts in the jobs tangle.

"There has been at this point an apparent assumption by both parties that somebody else, the government, the Congress, whoever it may be, is going to decide this," the secretary said in a televised interview.

Still, Wirtz added, he hopes that "when both of these parties are looking down the gun barrel" of possible congressional action, "there is going to be a real facing up to the implications of the fact that if they don't settle, the prospect is something which will weaken the whole institution of collective bargaining."

Wirtz is chairman of the special six-man committee which began today to draft a report for President Kennedy on proposed legislation to be sent to Congress next Monday.

He refused Sunday to say whether the administration will recommend compulsory arbitration.

The committee met briefly in Wirtz' office, then withdrew to a closed session with representatives of the railroads and the five operating unions.

It was scheduled to review the positions of both the unions and the railroads at sessions today and Tuesday.

The railroads have postponed until July 29 putting into effect new work rules designed to eliminate gradually about 60,000 jobs they claim are unnecessary. The five operating unions, which say the jobs are essential for safe and efficient train operations, have promised to delay strike action until that date.

Amanda Driver Guilty of OMV

Roy Martin, 68, Amanda, was found guilty of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants by acting Municipal Court Judge Lemuel B. Weldon today.

Martin, who was charged by Circleville Police, was handed a fine of $150 and costs, sentenced to three days in the county jail and had his operators license suspended for a six-month period by Weldon.

In other court action today, David A. Brink, 19, 121 York St. was found guilty on three counts filed by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department. He was fined a total of $115 and costs with $50 of the fine suspended. The charges were operating a motor vehicle without a valid operator's license, operating a motor vehicle not equipped with a legal muffler and operating an unsafe vehicle.

EVAN P. FORD

Injuries Fatal To Candidate For Judgeships

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Injuries suffered in a traffic accident five months ago have resulted in the death of Mount Vernon Municipal Court Judge Evan P. Ford.

The 49-year-old jurist was injured in a car-truck crash near Concord, N.C., in mid-February and since that time had been hospitalized. He was returned to Ohio late in March. Death came late Sunday at Mount Carmel Hospital here.

He twice sought office in Pickaway County. In 1958 he was an unsuccessful write-in candidate for Common Pleas Judge on both the May Primary and the November general election ballots.

In 1959 he was a candidate for Municipal Court post. He was defeated in that election by Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

Ford was a graduate of Ohio State University and held a law degree from Franklin University. He also was a former state Democratic senator, having served one term in 1959-60.

Former Gov. Michael V. DiSalle appointed him to the Mount Vernon municipal bench in 1960. Judge Ford was not married. Funeral services were incomplete.

Unemployment

A. You are putting your finger on the key solution to the problem of Negro unemployment and job discrimination — an adequate supply of jobs in the economy as a whole. When jobs are scarce, discrimination flourishes. When manpower is scarce discrimination ebbs because it becomes too costly for employers.

Q. Now the administration's major proposal to increase jobs and to stimulate growth is tax reduction. Do you believe that this is part of the answer to the Negro's problem?

A. I think it's an essential part. A $10-billion tax cut, as it is spent and re-spent, will generate about $30 billion to $40 billion of added output, and roughly 2 to 3 million additional jobs. Past experience tells us that this will cut the Negro unemployment rate by more than one-third.

Q. You have been arguing that more rapid economic growth would help eliminate discrimination. Is the reverse true — that ending discrimination would help economic growth?

A. Yes. Taking the skills and training that Negroes have today and giving them equal job opportunities would give us 2 1/2 per cent more gross national product. That adds up to $14.5 billion. That would pay half of the country's entire educational bill for a year.

Q. Dr. Heller, you have pictured this tax cut as being of perhaps more benefit to the Negro than to the country as a whole.

A. That is, proportionately, of course.

Q. To summarize, are you saying that Congress has a double-barrelled job—both of eliminating discrimination and providing a better economic climate?

A. Yes. Unless there are job opportunities at the end of the road, the rest of the programs will be frustrated and frustrating.

Coed, Date Slain On Lovers' Lane

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Police today sought a motive for the slaying of an attractive college coed and her date Sunday. Blonde Shari K. Smoyer, 18, Ithaca College sophomore and Jack King, 17, a recent high school graduate, were found shot, lying side by side on a lovers' lane in suburban Pittsford. The bodies were face-down in front of King's car.

Police found five empty cartridges and a 45-caliber bullet which apparently passed through one of the bodies, hit the car, and fell to the ground.

Toledo Area Visited By 22 Head of Cattle

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — For a while early today a neighborhood on the near northside looked like a movie-version western cow town.

Twenty-two head of cattle broke out of a stockyard at the John D. Pacer Packing Co. and wandered around for nearly two hours before "cowboys"—policemen in cruisers—managed to roundup the steers and packing company workers returned them to the stockyard.

WCC Receives Medical Gear

Patients of Former Local MD are Donors

The Well Child Conference of Pickaway County is the recipient of a number of pieces of medical equipment, Mrs. Jasper Hedges, chairman of the executive board, announced yesterday.

Money for the equipment, which includes a folding treatment table, otoscope, percussion hammer, professional flashlight, sphygmometer and stethoscope, was given by former patients of Dr. Henry H. Swope in his honor. Dr. Swope is presently in Medical practice at the Yellowstone Clinic in Glendive, Montana.

The Well Child Conference was founded in 1959, and the first clinic was held in April of that year. Dr. Swope, who at that time was a member of the City Board of Health, was one of those instrumental in organizing its services.

Since its inception four years ago, the Well Child Conference has served 581 children, between the ages of two months and six years, providing for them immunizations, routine medical examinations by local doctors and dentists, with follow-up medical treatment and surgical or dental corrections for families without adequate financial resources.

The WCC is staffed by volunteers from the Pickaway County Medical and Dental Associations, the County Nurses Association, the local Gray Ladies and community volunteers. It is held the second Wednesday of every month in the Guild Room of Berger Hospital beginning at 9 a. m. Children are accepted for the clinic on referral basis from their family physician or by reason of being on one of the Welfare Programs.

Funds for yearly operation of the WCC are provided by the Pickaway County Community Fund. Members of the Executive Board are:

Labor Chief Sees Rail Fuss Bringing Compulsory Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz says the four-year-old dispute over railroad work rules is headed toward a compulsory solution because both the carriers and the unions are guilty of "a failure of responsibility."

"There is no affirmative attempt by either side in this situation to do anything about settling it even at this hour," Wirtz said Sunday as a special presidential panel prepared to sift the facts in the jobs tangle.

"There has been at this point an apparent assumption by both parties that somebody else, the government, the Congress, whoever it may be, is going to decide this," the secretary said in a televised interview.

Still, Wirtz added, he hopes that "when both of these parties are looking down the gun barrel" of possible congressional action, "there is going to be a real facing up to the implications of the fact that if they don't settle, the prospect is something which will weaken the whole institution of collective bargaining."

Wirtz is chairman of the special six-man committee which began today to draft a report for President Kennedy on proposed legislation to be sent to Congress next Monday.

He refused Sunday to say whether the administration will recommend compulsory arbitration.

The committee met briefly in Wirtz' office, then withdrew to a closed session with representatives of the railroads and the five operating unions.

It was scheduled to review the positions of both the unions and the railroads at sessions today and Tuesday.

The railroads have postponed until July 20 putting into effect new work rules designed to eliminate gradually about 60,000 jobs they claim are unnecessary.

The five operating unions, which say the jobs are essential for safe and efficient train operations, have promised to delay strike action until that date.

Farmer, a Negro, told Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., in an interview taped for broadcast in New York that some nationwide firms had agreed to end discrimination in employment and service.

But a boycott is planned against other "offending firms," mainly department and variety stores, he said.

Farmer said there was no intention of having Negroes who march on Washington stage sit-ins at Capitol offices. But he added that in event of a filibuster by Southern senators "I think some drastic action might have to be taken."

He said if Congress takes a recess in late August, "this would be indeed a new form of filibuster."

$15,000 Suit Filed Here

A $15,000 lawsuit has been filed against Mrs. Bernice J. Cummins, Asheville, as the administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Charles E. Cummins.

Plaintiff of the suit is Mrs. Stella Morrison, Asheville, executrix of the estate of her late husband, Frank B. Morrison.

Mrs. Morrison's husband died Oct. 16, 1961, as the result of injuries received when he was struck by a motorcycle driven by Mrs. Cummins' husband, Cummins, fire chief of the Asheville-Harrison Volunteer Fire Department at that time, was on a practice run when the accident occurred.

The Morrison petition claims Cummins was negligent in not providing the assured clear distance ahead; gave no warning and had no light in operation on the motorcycle.

Mrs. Morrison alleges that she made a claim in the amount of $15,000 on April 30, 1963, against the Cummins estate, and the claim was denied.

Harry Margulis, Asheville attorney, represents Mrs. Morrison in the court action.

Couple Charged With Child Neglect

A Circleville couple pleaded guilty Friday to charges of neglecting their four minor children in Pickaway County Juvenile Court.

Judge Robert Hastings of Fairfield County heard the case for vacationing Judge Guy Cline. Judge Hastings continued the case until this Friday to pronounce sentence.

Three children of the defendants Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dennis, N. Scioto St., were turned over to the Child Welfare Board on a temporary basis, according to court records.

Giving testimony during the hearing were Mrs. Pauline Kirkpatrick, city health nurse, and Dr. Manuel Sanguly, local physician. The court hearing was ordered following an investigation of the home by Ruth Neff and Ralph Starkey, court officials.

EVAN P. FORD

Injuries Fatal To Candidate For Judgeships

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Injuries suffered in a traffic accident five months ago have resulted in the death of Mount Vernon Municipal Court Judge Evan P. Ford.

The 49-year-old jurist was injured in a car-truck crash near Concord, N.C., in mid-February and since that time had been hospitalized. He was returned to Ohio late in March. Death came late Sunday at Mount Carmel Hospital here.

He twice sought office in Pickaway County. In 1958 he was an unsuccessful write-in candidate for Common Pleas Judge on both the May Primary and the November general election ballots.

In 1959 he was a candidate for Municipal Court post. He was defeated in that election by Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

Ford was a graduate of Ohio State University and held a law degree from Franklin University. He also was a former state Democratic senator, having served one term in 1959-60.

Former Gov. Michael V. DiSalle appointed him to the Mount Vernon municipal bench in 1960. Judge Ford was not married. Funeral services were incomplete.

Unemployment

any real possibility of improving Negro income without an over-all improvement in the economy?

A. You are putting your finger on the key solution to the problem of Negro unemployment and job discrimination — an adequate supply of jobs in the economy as a whole. When jobs are scarce, discrimination flourishes. When manpower is scarce discrimination ebbs because it becomes too costly for employers.

Q. Now the administration's major proposal to increase jobs and to stimulate growth is tax reduction. Do you believe that this is part of the answer to the Negro's problem?

A. I think it's an essential part. A $10-billion tax cut, as it is spent and re-spent, will generate about $30 billion to $40 billion of added output, and roughly 2 to 3 million additional jobs. Past experience tells us that this will cut the Negro unemployment rate by more than one-third.

Q. You have been arguing that more rapid economic growth would help eliminate discrimination. Is the reverse true — that ending discrimination would help economic growth?

A. Yes. Taking the skills and training that Negroes have today and giving them equal job opportunities would give us 2 1/2 per cent more gross national product. That adds up to $14.5 billion. That would pay half of the country's entire educational bill for a year.

Q. Dr. Heller, you have pictured this tax cut as being of perhaps more benefit to the Negro than to the country as a whole.

A. That, is, proportionately, of course.

Q. To summarize, are you saying that Congress has a double-barrelled job — both of eliminating discrimination and providing a better economic climate?

A. Yes. Unless there are job opportunities at the end of the road, the rest of the programs will be frustrated and frustrating.

Taft Decision On Senate Race Delayed

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, hints that he may run for the U.S. Senate in 1964, but at the same time he says he doesn't expect to make a decision until after his session of Congress.

Taft, interviewed Sunday night on the NBC television program "Meet the Press," was asked whether he would rather run for the Senate or be governor of Ohio.

He replied:

"I have always, in my own political career at least, been interested in the legislative branch of government, and very frankly I would say I would rather run for the Senate than run for governor."

Asked if this meant he intends to run for the Senate next year, he said, "I have made no decision on that and as I have said, I don't expect to make a decision until after this session of Congress at least."

Taft discussed a number of other subjects, including the Republican presidential campaign of next year. He told the panel he believes Sen. Thurston Morton, R-Ky., comes closer to the party's position today than any other contender.

Another Steel Dip Expected

No Output Upturn Seen until Fall

CLEVELAND (AP)—Steel magazine forecast another dip in steel production this week for the eighth straight week and said steel makers aren't looking for an upturn before September.

With operations curtailed to near 65 per cent of unofficial capacity, this week's output was forecast at less than the 2,020,000 ingot tons the trade publication estimated was produced last week.

For the month, steel producers figure shipments will be down 15 to 20 per cent from last month's totals, Steel said, and a further 10 to 15 per cent decline is expected in August.

"If September is better," Steel said, "it will be because inventory liquidation is slowing down and the economy is on the upswing."

Continued inventory cutbacks are deepening the usual summer slump. Mills will ship no more than 16 million tons of finished steel this quarter, Steel said, while customers will consume about 18.7 million tons, taking 2.7 million tons from inventories built for a strike that was averted.

Steelmaking scrap prices appear to be firming up, Steel reported, noting that "traders think the (scrap) market is now about on the bottom and they are anticipating a rise on some grades as the vacation season nears an end."

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy grade melting scrap was unchanged for the third week at $24.83.

OU Senior Wounded Walking Near Campus

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Gaylord Johnson, senior at Ohio University, was wounded by gunfire late Sunday as he and his girl friend walked through a wooded area near the campus, police reported.

Johnson, from Columbus, was taken to Mount Carmel Hospital in Columbus where attendants listed his condition as good. Authorities declined to give the girl friend's name.

Two men students were being questioned about the shooting. They were quoted as saying it was accidental.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

The weekend rainfall was heavy enough to alleviate drought conditions in Ohio to some degree. The rainfall averaged nine-tenths of an inch over the western third of the state and a half-inch over the central and eastern counties.

The pattern of high pressure which had blocked the normal progress of weather has been broken. For the next several days, fronts and low pressure systems are expected to travel normally, bringing about the possibility of additional showers during the middle of the week.

For the immediate future, dry weather and near normal temperatures are forecast for today and Tuesday.

Temperatures this morning were around 60 degrees, with Dayton reporting 59, Cleveland 60 and Toledo, Cincinnati and Columbus 61.

All but the immediate shores of Lake Erie are expected to warm into the 80s this afternoon.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average four degrees below normal, with a slow warming trend during early part of week followed by readings well below normal latter part of week. Normal high in lower 80s, normal low in lower 60s. Rainfall will average one-half to three-fourths of an inch as widespread showers and occasional thundershowers Wednesday and Thursday.

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO —Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high 84-88, normal low 62-67. Warm through Saturday except a little cooler about mid-week. Rainfall will average about one-half inch with thundershowers most likely about mid-week.

Why should I get excited about GAS AIR CONDITIONING?

Because a central Gas Air Conditioner keeps your whole home comfortable every day of the year with a flip of the thermostat. A simple, uncomplicated Gas flame provides both heating and cooling without noise...without wear. You can hook a whole-house Gas cooling unit right onto your forced air Gas furnace and probably use the same ductwork. Or, if you're building, install a single unit that both heats and cools year 'round. Because a Gas flame does both jobs, operating costs stay low. Taft Decision On Senate Race Delayed

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, hints that he may run for the U.S. Senate in 1964, but at the same time he says he doesn't expect to make a decision until after his session of Congress.

Taft, interviewed Sunday night on the NBC television program "Meet the Press," was asked whether he would rather run for the Senate or be governor of Ohio. He replied:

"I have always, in my own political career at least, been interested in the legislative branch of government, and very frankly I would say I would rather run for the Senate than run for governor."

Asked if this meant he intends to run for the Senate next year, he said, "I have made no decision on that and as I have said, I don't expect to make a decision until after this session of Congress at least."

Taft discussed a number of other subjects, including the Republican presidential campaign of next year. He told the panel he believes Sen. Thruston Morton, R-Ky., comes closer to the party's position today than any other contender.

Another Steel Dip Expected

No Output Upturn Seen until Fall

CLEVELAND (AP)—Steel magazine forecast another dip in steel production this week for the eighth straight week and said steel makers aren't looking for an upturn before September.

With operations curtailed to near 65 per cent of unofficial capacity, this week's output was forecast at less than the 2,020,000 ingot tons the trade publication estimated was produced last week.

For the month, steel producers figure shipments will be down 15 to 20 per cent from last month's totals, Steel said, and a further 10 to 15 per cent decline is expected in August.

"If September is better," Steel said, "it will be because inventory liquidation is slowing down and the economy is on the upswing."

Continued inventory cutbacks are deepening the usual summer slump. Mills will ship no more than 16 million tons of finished steel this quarter, Steel said, while customers will consume about 18.7 million tons, taking 2.7 million tons from inventories built for a strike that was averted.

Steelmaking scrap prices appear to be firming up, Steel reported, noting that "traders think the (scrap) market is now about on the bottom and they are anticipating a rise on some grades as the vacation season nears an end."

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy grade melting scrap was unchanged for the third week at $24.83.

Less than Expected

A half century was needed to put into effect the dream known as the St. Lawrence Seaway. Another 50 years may pass before the seaway realizes the expectations its backers held out for the first decade.

Now well into its fourth year of operation, the seaway has proved a successful venture for some of the cities along its route. To others, it has proved a detriment to local industry. Overall, the United States half of the joint Canada-U. S. ventures has been a financial failure and a disappointment in terms of tonnage served.

The St. Lawrence Seaway Corp., the federal agency in charge of the U. S. operation made a "profit" last year of $3.5 million, but it cannot pay the interest on its $150 million loan from the government. Illustrating the mixed impact of the enterprise, Toledo estimates it is $20 million to $25 million a year richer, but Buffalo lost one of its major industries when grain shipments which formerly were unloaded onto rail cars began sailing straight through to the Atlantic.

According to projections made for the St. Lawrence project before its completion, the seaway should have handled 37 million tons of freight last year. The figure was 26 million tons, a 10 per cent increase from 1961. It may not be possible to put off current financial obligations until the breakeven point is reached. Already there is talk of a rate increase to put the project on a paying basis and to provide funds for further work on the system, but an increase at time could add still more years to the period until traffic reaches an efficient level.

Some day the St. Lawrence avenue to the ocean may be everything, or almost everything, its planners dreamed of, but in the meantime most of the persons who were citing economic and tonnage statistics so eagerly four years ago are now strangely silent.

Stork Population Dwindles

In a period of population explosion, the stork—long-legged symbol of burgeoning populations—is dwindling in its own ranks. Its decline has become so marked in recent years that not a breeding pair of white (or common) storks remains in Switzerland, a recent report discloses. More than 50 stork families had dwelt for half a century on farmhouse roofs in a Swedish area, but they have disappeared.

Causes of diminishing flocks are weather along migration routes, the eating of man-poisoned insects and man's encroachment on feeding grounds.

Early Romans believed the stork was sacred to Venus, the goddess of love. Thus, when a pair nested on a rooftop the family was blessed. The stork nowadays is widely regarded as a good omen. Many European families attract them to their roof-tops by placing cartwheels as bases for nests.

The Business World

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The threat of an economy-crippling railroad strike lifted last week but the possibility of a paralysis continued to hang like a dark cloud on the horizon.

With only eight hours to go before the deadline, President Kennedy persuaded the railroads to defer putting work rules in force and the unions to refrain from walking out.

Tension was heavy Wednesday as the hours ticked away toward the 12:01 a.m. Thursday deadline. The unions had turned down the President's proposal that the dispute be submitted to binding arbitration by Supreme Court Justice Arthur Goldberg.

Shippers were figuring how they could route their goods without freight cars. Hundreds of thousands of commuters were trying to arrange other means of getting to their offices.

Shortly after 4 p.m. Wednesday the railroads and the unions agreed to a Kennedy proposal for a delay until July 29.

The President appointed a six-man labor-management panel, headed by Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz, to review the four-year-old railroad jobs dispute. It will submit its recommendations to Congress July 22.

On another sector of the labor-management front, a contract designed to set a pattern for the 750,000 Bell Telephone System employees in the United States and Canada was reached by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America.

CWA President Joseph A. Biemer described the 38-month agreement as without precedent in the communications industry. It includes contract improvement amounting to about 20 cents an hour for the first 14 months of the contract with provisions for reopening wage negotiations in 1964 and 1965.

Otherwise, the week was rather barren of important economic developments.

The Commerce Department reported that retail sales in June stayed at about the May level of $20.3 billion. Failure of sales to resume their climb in the last three months was surprising to some government economists.

Retailers, however, were optimistic about prospects for the second half of this year. A survey by the National Retail Merchants Association indicated that they expect sales to run 5 per cent ahead of a year earlier and profits to be up 10 per cent.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges added an optimistic note by saying that a gross national product—total of all goods and services—of $600 billion annually was not out of reason for the fourth quarter. Earlier this year government economists estimated the 1963 GNP at $538 billion.

Automobile production boomed again this week with an estimated output of 161,600 passenger cars against 126,687 in the holiday shortened previous week and 146,365 a year ago.

Production for the 1963 model year already exceeds the 6,687,000 for the entire 1962 model year and is nearing the record of 7.13 million 1955 models.

Steel production last week fell to a five month low, declining to 1,045,000 tons, or 11.6 per cent below the previous week.

Sales on the New York Stock Exchange this week totaled 18,135,859,231 for the four days week because of the holiday, in the week before.

Bond sales for the week totaled $21,660,700, compared with the previous week's $16,837,000.

Try and Stop Me

FROM Critic George Oppenheimer: A circus owner caught his trainer administering a merciless beating to the most valuable elephant in the troupe. "Stop!" roared the owner. "What's the idea of beating that poor animal?"

The trainer explained grimly, "He tripped in the middle of his act this evening." The owner cried, "Do you mean to say you're beating him just because he tripped?" "Just because he tripped, my left eyebrow!" said the trainer—or words to that effect. "He tore the tails out of all your six other elephants."

Attorney General Bobby Kennedy is a practical joker. For example, when he sent a homemade cake to Bureau of Prisons Director J. V. Bennett, he thoughtfully had a file baked into it.

Another practical joker, as all TV fans must know, is Allen Funt of "Candid Camera." He disguised himself so cleverly as an attractive girl at one Hollywood party that Jack Benny asked him for a dance.

Overheard at a mountain resort: "I'll tell you how good my son, the doctor, has become after one year of practice: in three weeks he cured that rich Mrs. Smythe of $1400!"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Swelling of the larynx, or edema of the larynx, has been the cause of one of the acute emergencies of infancy and of childhood. For through the larynx and its extension, the trachea, air and oxygen are carried to the lungs.

Diphtheria was one of the very severe infections that made breathing difficult because of the closing of the larynx. Often the life-saving operation of tracheotomy became imperative.

Even when diphtheria was eradicated by immunization, there were other serious infections that continued to be a threat to life because of swelling of the larynx. Penicillin and other antibiotics, and later cortisone, have been dramatically effective in the control and cure of childhood diseases that caused the larynx to swell. In the relatively short period of fifteen years, huge hospitals that were once devoted exclusively to contagious diseases have gradually emptied and are now being used for other purposes.

There are still a number of conditions that cause swelling of the larynx so severe that the patient has difficulty in breathing. As a life-saving measure, the surgical procedure of tracheotomy is performed.

A small opening is made in the front of the neck and a silver tube is inserted below the swelling. Through this tube the patient is able to breathe comfortably and safely. When the swelling of the larynx subsides, the tube is removed, the opening closed and normal breathing again occurs.

There was a time, not many years ago, when this operation was called "emergency tracheotomy" and was performed, as the name implies, only as a dire emergency. Today, more and more surgeons, even so-called "conservative" surgeons, choose not to wait for that critical moment of decision but rather to anticipate the emergency by deliberate and planned surgery well before it is dramatically needed.

Many new safety devices contributed by anesthesiologists have converted this operation from a dangerous one to a relatively safe one.

Recently, at the University of Utah Medical College, Dr. D. A. Dolowitz used a special anticoagulant drug, heparin, in severe cases of infections and swelling of the larynx. With his colleague, Dr. T. F. Dougherty, they found that this drug, in conjunction with cortisone and antibiotics, frequently eliminated the need for tracheotomy.

This is another important contribution in the treatment of swelling of the larynx.

Doctors who have lived through these exciting transitional years are proud of the privilege of being part of this scientific progress. They have watched with rightful pride the eradication of many of the dangerous complications of illness in children.

The once-terrifying emergency of the tracheotomy in childhood diseases slowly seems to be taking its place in the past history of medicine.

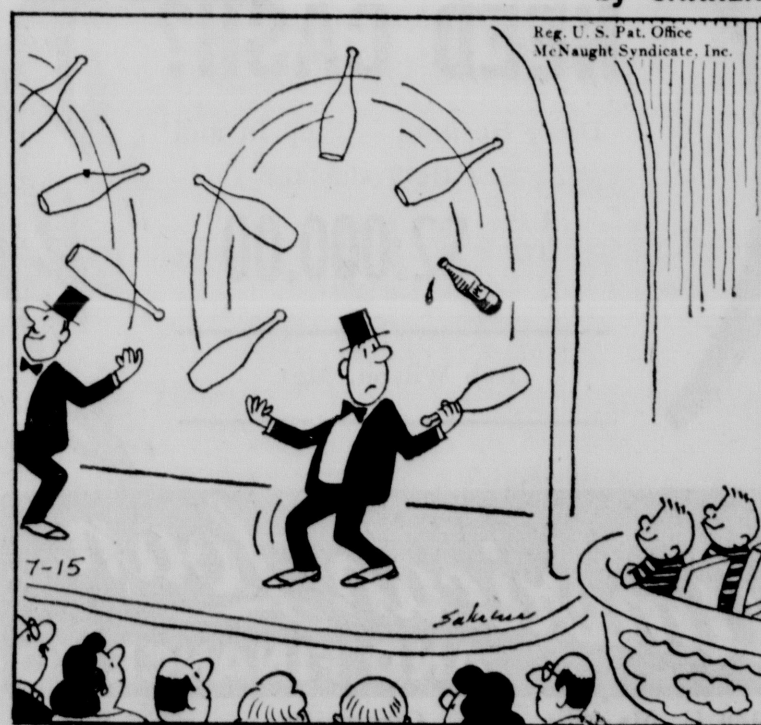

This day of scientific advancement has brought greater understanding of the relationship between the body and the mind. No longer is one separate from the other.

Psychological problems affect the body; the body responds to emotional turbulence. The body and mind are one, they behave as one and affect the destiny of man as a unit.

Tenor Executives Suffer Strain

Goldwater as Integrationist

By John Chamberlain

"A Goldwater candidacy," says one of my columnistic colleagues, "will automatically make the Republican Party into the 'white man's party.'"

This is one opinion. The American Fascists who picketed the Goldwater rally in Washington, D. C., on July 4, had a different point of view. Using some of the most scurrilous placards that have been flashed before human eyes since the days of Hitler's Nuremberg rallies, the American Fascists, advertising themselves as the "National Dump Goldwater" committee, tried to raise an entirely different spectre, that of a Goldwater who would turn the Republican Party over lock, stock and barrel to the Negroes.

If this business of trying to grind a front-running Republican candidate for presidential nomination between the two stones of "lily-whiteism" and "coal-blackism" weren't serious, it would be almost inexpressibly funny. For, as anybody who has respect for facts knows, Goldwater happens to be both an integrationist and a constitutionalist, which means that he is for extending rights to the Negro without infringing these same rights as they apply to other people. This is not a pro-white attitude, it is simply pro-American.

The Goldwater record on integration, unlike that of some of his recent detractors, is not the Johnny-come-lately type. It began in 1946, when, as an organizer and officer of the Arizona Air National Guard, Goldwater helped to integrate the armed forces of his own home state. Incidentally, the Arizona National Guard was the first post-war National Guard to be integrated.

Barry Goldwater's activities as a National Guard officer were not lost on the Negro community in Phoenix, Arizona. The Negroes came to him after he had been elected to the Phoenix City Council with complaints that the restaurant at Sky Harbor, the municipal airport, was just as effectively Jim Crow as any public facility in the Deep South. The City Council, under Goldwater prodding, proceeded to desegregate the restaurant. This was quickly followed up with a campaign to desegregate the Phoenix theatres and to eliminate the local Carver High School as a separate Negro educational institution. For his work as a leader in this campaign, and to the Urban League, Goldwater was presented with a membership card in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In Goldwater's own Arizona department stores, Negroes have also employed Mexicans.

With the Arizona Indians, Goldwater has a quite special relationship. When he was part-owner of Rainbow Lodge on the Navajo Reservation, Goldwater built the first airstrip in the area. He used to take Indians on plane rides giving many of them their first experience in flying. A familiar figure on the Navajo Reservation, Goldwater is sometimes referred to by the Indians as "Mr. America" — and the older Indians actually call airplanes "Goldwaters". Since the Indian population, like that of the American bison, has lately been on the increase, the time may come when Barry Goldwater will be singled out to become the leader of a dramatic push for "Indian rights." The Navajos and the Hopis of Arizona have been supporting Goldwater's party by a seven-to-one registration on the local reservations. There are, incidentally,

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERF

FROM Critic George Oppenheimer: A circus owner caught his trainer administering a merciless beating to the most valuable elephant in the troupe. "Stop!" roared the owner. "What's the idea of beating that poor animal?"

The trainer explained grimly, "He tripped in the middle of his act this evening." The owner cried, "Do you mean to say you're beating him just because he tripped?" "Just because he tripped, my left eyebrow!" said the trainer—or words to that effect. "He tore the tails out of all your six other elephants."

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...
By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Swelling of the larynx, or edema of the larynx, has been the cause of one of the acute emergencies of infancy and of childhood. For through the larynx and its extension, the trachea, air and oxygen are carried to the lungs.

Diphtheria was one of the very severe infections that made breathing difficult because of the closing of the larynx. Often the life-saving operation of tracheotomy became imperative.

Even when diphtheria was eradicated by immunization, there were other serious infections that continued to be a threat to life because of swelling of the larynx. Penicillin and other antibiotics, and later cortisone, have been dramatically effective in the control and cure of childhood diseases that caused the larynx to swell. In the relatively short period of fifteen years, huge hospitals that were once devoted exclusively to contagious diseases have gradually emptied and are now being used for other purposes.

There are still a number of conditions that cause swelling of the larynx so severe that the patient has difficulty in breathing. As a life-saving measure, the surgical procedure of tracheotomy is performed.

A small opening is made in the front of the neck and a silver tube is inserted below the swelling. Through this tube the patient is able to breathe comfortably and safely. When the swelling of the larynx subsides, the tube is removed, the opening closed and normal breathing again occurs.

There was a time, not many years ago, when this operation was called "emergency tracheotomy" and was performed, as the name implies, only as a dire emergency. Today, more and more surgeons, even so-called "conservative" surgeons, choose not to wait for that critical moment of decision but rather to anticipate the emergency by deliberate and planned surgery well before it is dramatically needed.

Many new safety devices contributed by anesthesiologists have converted this operation from a dangerous one to a relatively safe one.

Recently, at the University of Utah Medical College, Dr. D. A. Dolowitz used a special anticoagulant drug, heparin, in severe cases of infections and swelling of the larynx. With his colleague, Dr. T. F. Dougherty, they found that this drug, in conjunction with cor-

Goldwater as Integrationist

"A Goldwater candidacy," says one of my journalistic colleagues, "will automatically make the Republican Party into the 'white man's party'."

This is one opinion. The American Fascists who picketed the Goldwater rally in Washington, D. C., on July 4, had a different point of view. Using some of the most scurrilous placards that have been flashed before human eyes since the days of Hitler's Nuremberg rallies, the American Fascists, advertising themselves as the "National Dump Goldwater" committee, tried to raise an entirely different spectre, that of a Goldwater who would turn the Republican Party over lock, stock and barrel to the Negroes.

If this business of trying to grind a front-running Republican candidate for presidential nomination between the two stones of "lily - whiteness" and "coal-blackism" weren't serious, it would be almost inexpressibly funny. For, as anybody who has respect for facts knows, Goldwater happens to be both an integrationist and a constitutionalist, which means that he is for extending rights to the Negro without infringing these same rights as they apply to other people. This is not a pro-white attitude, it is simply pro-American.

The Goldwater record on integration, unlike that of some of his recent detractors, is not the Johnny-come-lately type. It began in 1946, when, as an organizer and officer of the Arizona Air National Guard, Goldwater helped to integrate the armed forces of his own home state. Incidentally, the Arizona National Guard was the first post-war National Guard to be integrated.

Barry Goldwater's activities as a National Guard officer were not lost on the Negro community in Phoenix, Arizona. The Negroes came to him after he had been elected to the Phoenix City Council with complaints that the restaurant at Sky Harbor, the municipal airport, was just as effectively Jim Crow as any public facility in the Deep South. The City Council, under Goldwater prodding, proceeded to desegregate the restaurant. This was quickly followed up with a campaign to desegregate the Phoenix theatres and to eliminate the local Carver High School as a separate Negro educational institution. For his work as a leader in this campaign, and to the Urban League, Goldwater was presented with a membership card in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In Goldwater's own Arizona department stores, Negroes have also employed Mexicans.

With the Arizona Indians, Goldwater has a quite special relationship. When he was part-owner of Rainbow Lodge on the Navajo Reservation, Goldwater built the first airstrip in the area. He used to take Indians on plane rides giving many of them their first experience in flying. A familiar figure on the Navajo Reservation, Goldwater is sometimes referred to by the Indians as "Mr. America" — and the older Indians actually call airplanes "Goldwaters". Since the Indian population, like that of the American bison, has lately been on the increase, the time may come when Barry Goldwater will be singled out to become the leader of a dramatic push for "Indian rights."

The Navajos and the Hopis of Arizona have been supporting Goldwater's party by a seven-to-one registration on the local reservations. There are, incidentally, some 8,000 Indians in Arizona as compared to 43,000 Negroes.

The facts about Goldwater's integrationist record are not well-known simply because very few people have bothered to ask about them. In this connection Goldwater, who relishes jokes about snakes, might recall the lady who, upon an open request from the stage, left her seat near the aisle and went up to play tricks with a python. When she returned to her seat in the audience, her husband looked at her with amazement and said:

"I didn't know you were a snake charmer."

"You never asked me," said the lady.

Navy Recruiter Told: Shape Up

Only Highest Caliber Officers Are Desired

WASHINGTON (AP) — Too many Navy men chosen for recruiting duty need their teeth fixed or have money problems.

This irks the Navy's Bureau of Personnel, so it has ordered commanding officers to look at the regulations "with a view toward more discriminate selection of individuals for recruiting duty."

"Recruiting duty is independent duty and, quite often, the individual so assigned is the only Naval representative in a community," the bureau said.

"Because conduct and personal and military bearing are under constant scrutiny, only high caliber petty officers are desired for this duty."

The personnel bureau says a large number of men transferred to this duty during the past year were not fully qualified. One officer said about 80 per cent of the recruiter candidates fall short of standards.

The bureau said they were considered below qualifications because dental work had not been completed at their home stations, some were having financial difficulties—and some lacked Navy driver's licenses.

Why the need for a license? A bureau spokesman explained that recruiters—there are 2,200 of them—canvass small towns and drive Navy cars in making their rounds.

Did the lack of dental work mean the Navy had a bunch of snaggle-toothed men out around the country, repelling rather than attracting new men?

No at all, said the spokesman. The trouble is that recruiters who don't get their teeth repaired while on a Navy ship or base must have the work done by civilian dentists. The result: bigger dental bills for the government.

As for personal money troubles, a bureau official said "We don't want any man who can't handle his own affairs out doing recruiting for the Navy."

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The efforts of the Russians and Red Chinese to explain their split would look like a farce in the use of language if the split itself did not have such immense significance for the future.

In their attacks on each other both sides were obviously writing for the history books to justify their positions. This was still no excuse for their long-windedness.

On June 14 the Chinese banged the Russians — particularly Premier Khrushchev—in a statement which took up four full pages when reprinted in an American newspaper. It was a scathing criticism of the Soviet Union.

Yet, it hardly mentioned the Soviet Union by name. Instead, it turned its scorn on "certain persons."

It ridiculed the Russians for accepting Western notions, condemned them as unrealistic, accused them of long and repeated hostility to Red China, and in short, accused them of undermining world communism.

Over this past weekend the Russians replied in a 35,000-word open letter to "all Communist parties of the world." The Russians indicated the Red Chinese directly, thus demonstrating how much the split has widened.

This was a savage answer which accused the Red Chinese of being anti-white racists, of falsifications and distortions, of ingratitude for Soviet help and of undermining the unity of world communism.

In between the two documents the Russians and Chinese on July 5 opened talks in Moscow to settle their differences. The weekend publication of Soviet feelings showed how little the talks achieved.

In fact, the Soviet statement said the Chinese delegates to the talks were making the split worse. If that split as it appears on the surface—could be summarized in a few paragraphs, this would be it.

1. Khrushchev, realizing the United States and Russia are so advanced in nuclear weapons that a war between them would eliminate both and much of the world besides, insists peaceful coexistence with the West is possible.

The Red Chinese say it is impossible and that capitalism is aggressive and must be overcome by force. The Russians say the Chinese don't seem to have any idea what a nuclear war means.

2. Khrushchev isn't giving up hope of communizing the rest of the world. But he says this can be brought about peacefully. For instance: through internal efforts in individual countries and even through such devices as elections.

To this the Red Chinese say: nonsense. They insist that only revolutions can achieve world communism because the West wouldn't permit peaceful take-overs.

Actually, ill-will between the Russian and Chinese Communist parties go back into the 1920s when Stalin dominated the Red Chinese—20 years before they took control—and almost got them wiped out by Chiang Kai-shek.

Other tensions have built up since the Chinese Reds drove Chiang out of mainland China in 1949 and took over the country. In addition, there is the ancient problem of nationalism—of rivalry—between the two forces.

On top of this, and perhaps as vital as anything in the split, is the fact that the Russians and Chinese are in two different stages of communism, the former far advanced, the latter just in the beginning stages.

Thus the Russians, with their developing prosperity, would have far more to lose than the Chinese who are still in the scratching stage. They can afford to be more venturesome than the Russians.

Because this is so, Khrushchev has reason to be less reckless than the Chinese, although he was reckless enough last autumn when he slipped his missiles into Cuba and brought the United States and Russia to the edge of war.

He is no less a revolutionary than the Chinese. He's just more sophisticated. There can hardly be any doubt—even among the Chinese—that Khrushchev will never stop trying his luck when and where he can. Cuba showed that.

He just doesn't want to stick his neck out, if he thinks it will be chopped off. If he does stick it out, as he did in Cuba, and knows he's stuck it out too far, he'll pull it back and wait for another time.

200-Pound 'Cutie Pie' Quite a Pet

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Cutie Pie is a ham and 200 pounds of many moods.

Sometimes she sits in her house and chews on an old shoe, sometimes she boxes with a dog. Sometimes, for a handout, she'll jump up on her house and do the twist.

"I think she's kind of like a person. You treat her right and she treats you right," said Mrs. Leona Britt in describing her 14-month-old Canadian black bear.

The twist? Mrs. Britt said the bear probably learned that from her 19-year-old grandson.

Cutie Pie once had the run of the Britt household. Then she began upsetting furniture. Three months ago she tore down a screen door. Her home is now her backyard house to which she is chained.

Mrs. Britt learned last year she could satisfy a childhood desire and obtain a bear through a pet shop for $115.

On Easter 1962 she got an 8-week-old cub, Cutie Pie.

"She was tame from the beginning. I used to walk her on a chain. One time she even got into a car with two policemen," said Mrs. Britt.

Cutie Pie is particular about her food; she wants nothing raw. Her favorites: cooked chicken and beef.

"I still take her for an occasional walk for exercise around the block," said Mrs. Britt. "She draws a crowd, like a circus, wherever we go."

PPG, Ford Introduce New Auto Primer Coating Method

A new method of primer coating automobiles by electro-deposition, very similar to the plating of metal, has been developed by Ford Motor Co. engineers in cooperation with chemists of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's Coatings and Resins Division, it was announced today.

The special water-soluble coatings, developed at the request of the Ford Motor Co., are chemically resistant and can be applied to any substrate that conducts electricity ranging from timbers to locomotives. The PPG Circleville plant is operated under the company's Coatings and Resins Division.

In the automotive field the new process offers much greater protection from corrosion to hard-to-reach body areas. This process allows a continuous film deposit in almost inaccessible construction areas. No portion of the object to be coated can be screened from the primer which penetrates even into hidden areas such as between two welded plates where dipping and spraying are ineffective.

The metal object to be painted is electrically connected to one of the electrodes in a tank containing the water-borne primer and the particles of paint are attracted to its surface in a uniform thickness.

Current density as regulated by applied voltage and the nature of the water-borne primer determines the thickness of the coating. The special high throw power primer developed by PPG chemists deposits uniformly on members having large and small areas in 30 to 60 seconds.

The electrodeposited films are no longer water soluble at this point. They cling firmly and are not lost during the rinsing operation prior to baking. The baking schedule is much the same as that used for conventional primer. The electrodeposited primer can be sanded and coated with an appropriate enamel or lacquer, or an intermediate surfacer coat can be sprayed on the electrodeposited primer if desired.

Advantages of the electro-deposition system over conventional coating methods provide considerable savings in overall costs because of excellent corrosion resistance, especially in recessed areas, accurate and uniform distribution of coatings that provides greater protection, and controlled film deposits that prevent waste of coating materials.

Make-up Magic To Camouflage Imperfections

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
Make-up makes all the difference, says an internationally famed California cosmetic authority, and who should know better? His Hollywood make-up studio has created some of the most famous and most celebrated faces of beauty.

The oval face, which is considered the most perfect because its balance is most symmetrical, is rare. Even so, says this expert, make-up can make a round, long or square face appear more oval, and that's not half of what cosmetics can accomplish.

They can, for example, conceal dark circles under eyes, occasional blemishes, scars and other skin imperfections.

The cosmetic that turns these tricks is a make-up stick that virtually erases these problems. Its applied direct from the stick before other make-up is used, then it's blended with fingertips.

A sheer make-up base that provides extra cover-up for the complexion is another aid to cosmetic camouflage.

To keep corrective make-up subtle, stick to colors that are one or two shades lighter or darker than skin. If make-up base is overly light or dark, the correction becomes obvious.

Here are some ways to use light and dark make-up to camouflage. Round or Square face: Apply dark make-up at the sides of the face, extending color down below the jawline to create a more oval look.

Long Face: Apply dark make-up just under and across the tip of the chin. Highlight the sides of the face with lighter make-up.

Wide Nose: Narrow it by shadowing the sides with darker make-up.

Long Nose: Shorten it by stroking dark make-up under the tip and by plucking brows so they're more than an eye's width apart.

After you've applied light or dark make-up to camouflage use your regular foundation, as you would ordinarily do if no other make-up had been applied. Stroke it on with fingertips, being careful not to rub hard and disturb the camouflage.

Miss Moore Becomes Bride Of Mr. Demenge in Illinois

Miss Liza Bales Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dewitt Moore, Winnetka, Ill., became the bride of Mr. Philippe Andre Jean Demenge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Demenge, Grenoble, France, 4:30 p. m. Saturday in Christ Church Chapel.

Dr. William Lea performed the ceremony. Vows were repeated in both English and French.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white chiffon sheath with floating panels in the back. Reembroidered Alencon lace enhanced the skirt and jacket and a pearl headpiece held her imported bouffant illusion veil.

Miss Molly Moore and Miss Nora Moore, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore street length gold sheath dresses with matching accessories and coronets of lilies. Their bouquets were lilies.

Mr. John Kimball, Winnetka, served as best man and ushers were Mr. A. E. M. Lover, Highland Park and Mr. Hugh McWilliams Jr., Winnetka.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple plans a three-week motor trip in the United States, and Aug. 8 they will sail for Europe, then take a trip to Spain. They will reside in Montpellier, France.

The new Mrs. Demenge is a graduate of Centenary College and the University of Grenoble, France.

Mr. Demenge is a graduate of Grenoble University and is now a medical student at the University of Montpellier, France.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. R. R. Bales, E. Main St. and the late Mr. Bales.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. R. Bales, Circleville, Mrs. A. C. Moore, Port Huron, Mich.; Mrs. Moore MacKenzie, Holland Mich.

Auxiliary To Meet

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet 6:30 p. m. today at the bus station to go to Veterans Hospital, Chillicothe.

Skewer cookery: thread chicken livers and small mushrooms on small skewers. Brush with French dressing and broil on one side, turn, brush with more dressing and finish broiling.

TEST BAN TALKERS—Leaders of the nuclear test ban talk teams in Moscow are W. Averell Harriman (left) for the U.S. and Lord Hailsham, British minister of science. On the agenda will be arrangements barring the spreading of nuclear weapons and measures to prevent war by accident.

Four Guests Attend Five Points Meet

Mrs. Audrey Bowman and daughter, Carol, Miss Melanie Dudleson and Miss Maifinda Marvin were guests when members of the Five Points WCTU met recently.

Mrs. Francis Furniss, president, opened the meeting with group singing followed by pledges to the flags. For devotions she used as her theme, "Malice Toward None". Mrs. Lloyd Neff read the scripture from Romans 12:10, Psalm 34: 14 and Col. 3:15 followed by meditation and prayer.

Mrs. Shirley Anderson, secretary, called the roll and 12 members responded with a favorite Bible verse. She then read the report of the last meeting. Plans were made to attend the meeting at Stoussville on July 26 and Lancaster, Aug. 7.

Mrs. Ernest Sheets read, "Strong Nations Seek God" and Mrs. Harry Dick read "The Peace Warriors". Mrs. Loring Storer read, "Danger Avoid Mixing Drinking with Driving" and Mrs. Clark McCafferty gave "Ten Commandments for Good Driving."

The meeting closed with group singing of "America the Beautiful" and the benediction. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gabriell and daughter Saralea and Mrs. Ernestine Dudleson.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Altmeyer and Miss Helen Altmeyer, Wheeling W. Va., are visiting a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Altmeyer, 1137 Lone Pine Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton C. Strawser, 119 Hayward Ave. and Mrs. A. H. Morris, 367 Watt St., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Mast, Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gaines, 717 E. Mound St., and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Francis, Columbus, have returned from a vacation trip through Kentucky. Their trip included a tour at Mammoth Cave National Park, a visit to Abraham Lincoln's birthplace, national historic site at Hodgenville, Ky., and a tour of the Rowan mansion where Stephen Foster was a guest and wrote "My Old Kentucky Home" at My Old Kentucky Home State Park, Bardonia, Ky. They also attended a 2½ hour musical of the Stephen Foster story which is presented at the outdoor theatre and includes a cast of 60 people.

Salad and other dishes, cut slices of white bread in one-half inch cubes. Toast the bread cubes in garlic-flavored olive oil until golden brown and crisp — keep heat low and allow plenty of time for this.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

You're Susceptible, Lady!

DEAR ABBY: I have the sweetest husband in the world, and an adorable son. Five months ago I went to work to help out with the bills. In our four years of marriage I never looked at another man. Then my boss started to get chummy with me. I was flattered because he was wealthy and important, and I was nobody. He's 10 years older than I am and not very good-looking. (He can't compare with my husband.) I can't explain it, but when this fat, bald, aging man leaned over and kissed me one day I was thrilled to pieces. Now he kisses me every chance he gets. I know it's wrong, Abby, but I can't stop. I know I could get him away from his wife, but I wouldn't want him for a husband. Isn't that the most ridiculous thing you ever heard of? How can I break away?

MIXED UP

DEAR MIXED: Give your boss two weeks' notice and leave. And if you must work, now that you know your weakness, get a job in an all-woman office.

DEAR ABBY: When two people are in love with one another, whose place is it to say first, "I love you"? The guy's or the girl's? I am inclined to believe that the old adage, "Ladies first", holds true here. Am I correct?

DEAR S.P.W.: No. The gentleman opens the bidding. If hearts are trumps, the lady redoubles.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think I am old-fashioned to believe that a man doesn't have a girl's best interests at heart if he invites her to his apartment for dinner and brings her home at three a.m.? I am not suggesting that they are doing anything immoral, but I think it looks bad for the girl to be seen leaving a man's apartment at that hour. They are both fine people. My daughter is the girl and she is in love with this man. She says "appearances" are not important. I can't say too much to her because she is 23 and has always been well-behaved. This is the first serious disagreement we've ever had and if you think I'm wrong to object, please tell me.

WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: "Appearances" ARE important. They shape a person's reputation—and a girl has only one reputation. Your daughter is "in love" with a very, selfish man, and you may quote me.

DEAR ABBY: Some very close friends of mine have told me that in the state of Illinois, if you are pregnant, you can get married without your parents' consent, even if you are under age. Is this true?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: If a girl is under age, no matter in WHAT state she's in, she needs her parents' consent to marry.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Wife Preservers

Wash the rubber gasket around your refrigerator door frequently with soap and water. Otherwise, accumulated grease will impair its life and refrigerator's efficiency.

You can stretch those burgers with chili con carne. Brown the hamburgers on both sides in a big skillet, then add the chili and let it heat gently while the burgers finish cooking.

Split Rock Cornish game hens before broiling on the outdoor grill. Make them compact by skewering the leg to the body and folding back the wing tip under the wing.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Breen of Scarsdale, N. Y. and New York City, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Mr. Arthur H. Travers Jr., son of Mrs. Martin Travers of Gary, Ind. and Mr. Arthur H. Travers of Arlington Heights, Ill. Miss Breen is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles G. Schulze, S. Court St.

The bride elect graduated magna cum laude from Mount Holyoke College in 1959. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and received her master's degree from Columbia University in 1962. She is currently studying for her PhD at Harvard University.

Mr. Travers is a graduate of Grinnell College where he was president of the student council, and at Harvard Law School he was a member of the Law Review. He graduated magna cum laude from Harvard in 1962 and is now practicing with the firm of Mayer, Friedlich, Spiess, Tierney, Brown and Platt in Chicago.

The wedding will be an event of Aug. 24 in Scarsdale, N. Y.

Cleveland Woman, 81, Disappears after Walk

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Armin Menke, 81, who is just 4-foot-4 and weighs only 65 pounds, walked out of her house Saturday night and headed toward a rear garden which meets the Lake Abram Swamp in Middleburg Heights.

She has not been seen or heard from since. A police search of the area for two hours Saturday night and most of Sunday failed to turn up a clue.

You can stretch a tossed green salad, and make it especially interesting to men, by adding whole-kernel corn. Cut the kernels from leftover cooked corn on the cob, or use canned corn; in the latter case, drain it thoroughly.

A couple of slices of cooked bacon leftover? Crumble it and add to muffin batter. Or cook extra bacon specifically for this use! These bacon muffins are great with breakfast eggs.

Teacher Says She Is Alibi For Racketeer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Allene Leonards, 24-year-old second grade teacher who told sheriff's deputies she was with rackets figure Alex Shondor, Birns until shortly before the time investment promoter Marvin Glain is believed to have been slain, has hired the attorney who has been representing Birns, it was reported today.

She told a Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter Sunday her lawyer is James R. Willis. Willis also represented Gold in his Federal Court trial and in several hearings in Common Pleas Court.

Investigators said Miss Leonards told them any information about her and Birns' whereabouts after 10:30 p.m. on July 5, the night of the murder, would have to come through her attorney or else as testimony. The coroner has placed the time of Gold's death that night at about 11:30 shortly after he had left his home to meet Birns.

Authorities said Miss Leonards, who teaches at Garfield Park School in suburban Garfield Heights, may be called to testify at the inquest into Gold's death Wednesday morning.

Detective Lt. Carl Delau said the fact that Birns and Miss Leonards dined together at a suburban Oakwood tavern covers Birns whereabouts only until about 10:30 on the murder night.

"He doesn't account for more than 12 hours of his time, from 10:30 p.m. until he showed up Saturday in Toledo," Delau said.

Make-up Magic To Camouflage Imperfections

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
Make-up makes all the difference, says an internationally famed California cosmetic authority, and who should know better? His Hollywood make-up studio has created some of the most famous and most celebrated faces of beauty.

The oval face, which is considered the most perfect because its balance is most symmetrical, is rare. Even so, says this expert, make-up can make a round, long or square face appear more oval, and that's not half of what cosmetics can accomplish.

They can, for example, conceal dark circles under eyes, occasional blemishes, scars and other skin imperfections.

The cosmetic that turns these tricks is a make-up stick that virtually erases these problems. Its applied direct from the stick before other make-up is used, then it's blended with fingertips.

A sheer make-up base that provides extra cover-up for the complexion is another aid to cosmetic camouflage.

Darker shades of this base are used to shadow the parts of the face that need to be diminished. Lighter shades are applied to highlight features that need to be widened, enlarged or made more noticeable.

To keep corrective make-up subtle, stick to colors that are one or two shades lighter or darker than skin. If make-up base is overly light or dark, the correction becomes obvious.

Here are some ways to use light and dark make-up to camouflage. Round or Square face: Apply dark make-up at the sides of the face, extending down below the jawline to create a more oval look.

Long Face: Apply dark make-up just under and across the tip of the chin. Highlight the sides of the face with lighter make-up.

Wide Nose: Narrow it by shadowing the sides with darker make-up.

Long Nose: Shorten it by stroking dark make-up under the tip and by plucking brows so they're more than an eye's width apart.

After you've applied light or dark make-up to camouflage use your regular foundation, as you would ordinarily do if no other make-up had been applied. Stroke it on with fingertips, being careful not to rub hard and disturb the camouflage.

Elks Top Legion 11-4; Win 2nd Round Title

BPO Elks defeated the American Legion, 11-4, Saturday, catapulting them into ownership of the second round championship in the Little League Majors.

Winning hurler Rick Prushing mastered the Legion on four hits. He had a shutout going, but lost it in the fifth inning when he was bombed for three runs.

The Legions thrower was John Hamrick. He was touched for 11 runs on 10 hits.

Hamrick gave up two in the second, but was panned on for nine big tallies in the fourth and these proved to be the runs of success.

Bruce Liston greeted Hamrick with a home run, and Mike Moorehead, Bryce Brown and Boyer, all contributed doubles in the victory.

Hopple Hopkins, Legion cleanup hitter, swatted a triple and a single, but to no avail. Frank Carter and Steve Nelson added the other two singles.

Baseball Program In Seventh Week

The Little League majors begin its third round of play this week in the Circleville Youth Baseball Program.

The program is entering the seventh week of action. Only three weeks remain before championship deciding contests begin.

Coca Cola won the first round in the Little League majors while the Elks defeated the American Legion Saturday morning to take the second round.

In the Babe Ruth majors, Kiwanis won the first round, and L.M. Butch came off with the second round title. Circleville Lumber won the first round in the Mosquito League. The Babe Ruth minors and the little league minors play straight schedules.

Following is the schedule for the week:

Monday — DuPont vs L. M. Butch, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Kiwanis vs GE, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Blue Ribbon Dairy vs Wards, 5:15, little league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Kochheiser vs Third National Bank, 5:15, Babe Ruth diamond, Fairgrounds; Ankrum vs Hill 5:15, Atwater; Lewis Cook Insurance vs Mac's Goodyear, 5:15, Corwin.

Youth Grabs Ohio Amateur

Bourne Bows to Boys But Clobbers Men

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—He may not do too well against the teenagers, but 19-year-old Bob Bourne of Oberlin turns tight against the men.

The blond youngster finished ninth just a month ago in the state junior golf tournament, but Sunday he captured the state's No. 1 title—the 57th Ohio amateur championship.

Bourne, a sophomore at the University of Houston, did it with a startling 2 and 1 victory in the final 36-hole over 44-year-old Dan Carmichael of Columbus, 1960 champion and favorite all the way through the week-long, 180-hole grind.

Carmichael's usually magic putter failed him, aiding Blond Bob to his upset conquest. The Columbus architect, who played in the state meet seven years before his youthful foe was born, missed putt of four, seven, eight, five, three and four feet, and each lapse cost him a hole.

"After you miss the first one you begin wondering whether it's your stroke or the way you read the green," Carmichael said. "After you miss the second one, you lose your confidence."

Bourne, leading by four holes after 26 over the rain-drenched Elyria Country Club course, saw his lead dwindle twice to a single hole on the closing nine. But he hung on and a three-putt green and a missed four-foot putt by Carmichael kept him in front.

The youngster, whose lone previous victory of any note was in last year's Mid-American junior match play championship at Mansfield, threw his perky straw hat into the air and heaved his ball into the trees as the winning putt fell.

Bourne was two down at the end of nine holes, due to two birdie putts of 25 and 4 feet by Carmichael, but he won the 10th with a par and took three straight starting with the 15th as his veteran foe had a double bogey and then bowed to a pair of birdies.

That gave Bourne a two-up edge at lunch time, and he increased it to four on the front nine of the afternoon as Carmichael's putter soured.

The new champ, whose full name is Robert Lester Bourne Jr., plans to go after the Western Junior title in Columbus in mid-August and may play in the Western Amateur at Benton Harbor, Mich.

Carmichael summed up his loss thus:

"I not only lost the championship, but I lost $16. I hadn't expected to stay around here until the finish, so I paid my $15 dollar entry fee in a sports car race at Bellefontaine Sunday. I had to forfeit the money."

tle league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; First National Bank vs Blue Robbion Dairy, 5:15, little league diamond, Fairgrounds.

Thursday — L. M. Butch vs Kiwanis, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Lindsey vs DuPont, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Circleville Oil vs Third National Bank, 5:15, little league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Third National Bank vs the Savings Bank, 5:15, Babe Ruth diamond, Fairgrounds; Savings Bank vs Second National Bank, 5:15, little league diamond, Fairgrounds; Pickaway Dairy vs Lew Cook Insurance, 5:15, Atwater; Pickaway Dairy vs Ankrum Lumber, 5:15, Corwin.

Friday — Coke vs Elks, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Purina vs American Legion, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Herald vs Bingmans, 5:15, little league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; VFW vs Kochheiser, 5:15, Babe Ruth diamond, Fairgrounds; Rotary vs IOOF, 5:15, little league diamond, Fairgrounds; Prairie Lanes vs Circleville Lumber, 5:15, Atwater; Mac's Goodyear vs K of C, 5:15, Corwin.

Kiwanis Earns 9-8 Win over Chillicothe Elks

The Kiwanis club in the Babe Ruth majors earned a 9-8 exhibition victory Sunday over Chillicothe Elks, with the locals swatting four hits and receiving six errors and nine walks from their overly gracious opponents.

Gary Leasure started for the Kiwanis nine and allowed five runs on three hits, fanned two and walked two. Steve Dade aided him in the third and finished the game as the winning hurler. He gave up three runs on four hits, allowed one walk and whiffed six.

Their opponent, Johnson, went the route and hurled a four-hitter. He permitted nine walks and fanned four.

In the first inning the locals garnered four tallies on one hit. Leading off man, Allen, banged a ball at the pitcher, who pegged to first for the out. Joe Winner hit to the shortstop, who obligingly booted the ball. A passed ball to Leasure gave second base to Winner, who promptly swiped third on the next toss.

LEASURE drew a walk as did Ankrum, to load the sacks. The next hitter, Dade, banged the ball to the second-sacker, who fired to first to retire Dade, but permitted the runners to advance and Winner to score.

Funk hit into a fielders choice, but was safe on the throw. Lambert walked and Strawser poled a single but was out when he attempted to take second.

Allen banged a single for the winners as did Strawser, Ankrum and Winner.

For the conquered, Tackett hammered three singles, Taylor slammed a double, Manion poled a double and a single, and McAfee carded a single.

'300 Wins' Wynn To Be Used Again

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Early Wynn, the latest and the last of baseball's 300-game winners—at least for several years—wants to continue pitching as long as he can help the Cleveland Indians.

"This No. 300 was so hard to get, it's tough to name any future goals," said the 43-year-old right-hander. Wynn finally reached the select circle on his eighth attempt Saturday, pitching the first five innings of a 7-4 victory over the A's.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts made it clear before boarding a plane for Minneapolis that Wynn will continue his once-a-week pitching for the Indians.

Substitute List Fails To Deter Romping Yanks

Lopez, Blanchard, Berra Shine with Super-Stars on Bench

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Consider the desperate plight of the New York Yankees.

They've been forced to use the likes of Hector Lopez and John Blanchard in the outfield in place of injured super-stars Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

They've pressed their aging coach, Yogi Berra, into duty as catcher and pinch hitter.

They've had to put a youthful left-hander named Al Downing straight from the minors into their front-line pitching rotation.

But, somehow or another, the Yankees have struggled into a 6½-game edge in the American League—which is quite an edge for this time of the season, even for the perennial pennant winners.

The Yanks pushed into their biggest lead of the year Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over their favorite opponents, the Kansas City Athletics.

A 14-hit attack led by Lopez, Berra and Blanchard powered the Yanks to an 11-6 victory in the opener, while Downing's four-hit pitching and the slugging of Elston Howard and Tom Tresh won the second game 5-0.

The Boston Red Sox kept their slim hold on second place in a split at Los Angeles, winning the second game 5-0 after the Angels took the opener 11-8. Chicago's third-place White Sox divided with Baltimore, nipping the Orioles 3-2 on Nellie Fox' clutch two-run single in the ninth inning following a 6-3 setback in the first game.

Minnesota unloaded a barrage of home runs and swept Cleveland 5-3 and 8-2.

The Detroit-at-Washington doubleheader was rained out.

The Los Angeles Dodgers also jumped to a 6½-game lead in the National League by winning their seventh straight, 3-2 over Philadelphia in six innings. The rest of the doubleheader was washed out.

Also in the NL—St. Louis and Chicago split, the Cardinals winning 10-3 and the Cubs 7-3; Cincinnati beat Milwaukee 5-3, then lost to the Braves 7-6; and Houston dealt the New York Mets their 15th loss in a row, 8-3 in a doubleheader opener called in the eighth because of rain. San Francisco's scheduled doubleheader at Pittsburgh also was lost to rain.

The A's drew five walks off Bill Stafford in the first inning of the opener at Kansas City, taking a 4-0 lead, but the Yanks pounded back and finally made a rout of it with five runs in the eighth.

The 22-year-old Downing struck out 10 in his third shutout and fifth victory since being promoted from Richmond last month.

Chet Nichols and relief ace Dick Radatz combined for a five-hit shutout for the Red Sox in the second game at Los Angeles, while in the opener the Angels drew seven walks and every one became a run.

Fox brought the White Sox a split with the Orioles when he banged a bases-loaded single with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning.

The second game was marred by a beanballing incident in which Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Orioles had to be restrained as he charged toward White Sox pitcher John Buzhardt. Jerry Adair was hit in the mouth and Brooks Robinson in the helmet by Buzhardt fast balls.

Homers brought Minnesota 11 of its 13 runs in the sweep over Cleveland. Reserve Don Mincher belted a grand slam and Harmon Killebrew hit a two-run shot in the second game, while Earl Battey, Zoilo Versalles and Vic Power connected in the opener. Jim Kaat and Bill Pleis were the winning pitchers.

Germantown GI, 19, Drowns in Kansas River

FT. RILEY, Kan. (AP) — A young soldier who drowned in the Kansas River is the son of a Germantown, Ohio, man, the Army says.

The victim, who went under after jumping into the river Saturday, was Pfc. Paul R. Isaacs, 19, of Ft. Riley. Forrest W. Isaacs of Germantown is listed as his father.

San Franciscan Never Took a Golf Lesson

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—National Public Links champion Bob Lunn has never taken a golf lesson and he has no plans to turn pro.

The 18-year-old San Franciscan, who until the weekend had won only a few northern California tournaments, blossomed into a national champion Saturday when he held off Steve Oppermann of South San Francisco 1-up in a 36-hole final.

"I just try to keep from bogeying any hole," said the soft-spoken, lanky youngster. The formula paid off as he carded fewer birdies than Oppermann, but won seven holes that his 21-year-old foe bogied.

The victory qualifies him for the national amateur championship—his next major appearance.

He played the 6,702-yard par 36-36-72 Haggan Oaks Golf course in 38-34-72 Saturday morning and 36-37-73 in the afternoon.

After qualifying at 132 holes-over-par, Lunn played his 112 holes of match play four-under par.

Lunn hit the 450-yard final green in two, left his first putt four feet short, then, although "I don't know what was in my mind," he rapped the winning putt squarely into the cup.

Lunn plans to attend San Jose State College, probably on a golf scholarship. Beyond that, his golf plans are not set.

Yale's longest football trip next fall will be to Philadelphia to play Pennsylvania.

Yale football captain George Humphrey, a 177-pound center, also takes part in boxing and lacrosse.

Berra Gives Yanks New Lift with Hits

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Yogi Berra, 38 years young, is on a hitting streak that gives the New York ankees a lift when they need it most, with Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris on the shelf.

This doubtless is what the Yanks had in mind when they kept him on the active list as a player-coach. Berra is making the decision look good, with a 10-for-18 spurge in his last five games, raising his batting average as a part time performer to .304.

Berra drove in eight runs and slugged two homers and two doubles in the streak.

Berra stroked a double and two singles, drove in a run, scored once and caught the game as the Yanks beat Kansas City 11-6 Sunday.

PGA Looks Tough To New Zealander

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Bob Charles, the lanky New Zealander who became the patron saint of left-handers everywhere when he won the British Open, can't see himself repeating the trick in the National PGA here this week.

Charles arrived Sunday night, weary from 72 holes of pressure golf in two days during which he dropped about six pounds from his already spare frame.

"I don't think I'll have much chance here," said the only south-paw ever to win a major golf championship. "The weather was very good in England and now I must try to adjust to the Texas heat. Also, I have to adjust from the small English ball to the American ball and I'll be playing on a new course. It's quite a combination to beat."

Swaps, sire of Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay, still holds four Hollywood Park track records.

Reds, Braves Split Pair Of Games

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds and the Milwaukee Braves took turns Sunday jolting each other a bit further from the National League lead by dividing a doubleheader.

The Reds now are in fifth place ½ games off the pace, while Milwaukee is 9½ games behind in sixth place.

Cincinnati, getting its first home runs at Crosley Field this month, took the first game 5-3 with John Tsitouris (5-3) the winning pitcher.

The Braves won the second game on Reds pitcher Joey Jay's ineffectiveness, 7-6. Jay, through bases on balls, a double steal off his slow curves and a wild pitch, gave Milwaukee a 5-2 lead in four innings.

Manager Fred Hutchinson was ordered out of the second game in the first inning for heckling from the bench.

First baseman Marty Keough broke the Reds' home run drought in the first inning of the opener when he drove the ball over the centerfield fence after Vada Pinson had doubled and Frank Robinson had walked.

In the third, Pinson, who got six hits in the two games, drove the ball over the rightfield bleachers.

Baseball Program In Seventh Week

The Little League majors begin its third round of play this week in the Circleville Youth Baseball Program.

The program is entering the seventh week of action. Only three weeks remain before championship deciding contests begin.

Coca Cola won the first round in the Little League majors while the Elks defeated the American Legion Saturday morning to take the second round.

In the Babe Ruth majors, Kiwanis won the first round, and L.M. Butch came off with the second round title. Circleville Lumber won the first round in the Mosquito League. The Babe Ruth minors and the little league minors play straight schedules.

Following is the schedule for the week:

Monday — DuPont vs L.M. Butch, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Kiwanis vs GE, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Blue Ribbon Dairy vs Wards, 5:15, little league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Kochheiser vs Third National Bank, 5:15, Babe Ruth diamond, Hill 5:15, Atwater; Lewis Cook Insurance vs Mac's Goodyear, 5:15, Corwin.

Tuesday — Purina vs Bingmans, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Elks vs American Legion, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; First National Bank vs Savings Bank, 5:15, little league diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Savings Bank vs VFW, 5:15, Babe Ruth diamond, Fairgrounds; Pickaway Dairy vs Prairie Lanes, 5:15, Atwater; K of C vs Circleville Lumber, 5:15, Corwin.

Wednesday — IOOF vs Jaycees, 5:15, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Coke vs The Herald, 7:30, softball diamond, Ted Lewis Park; Rotary vs Circleville Oil, 5:15, lit-

Youth Grabs Ohio Amateur

Bourne Bows to Boys
But Clobbers Men

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—He may not do too well against the teenagers, but 19-year-old Bob Bourne of Oberlin turns tiger against the men.

The blond youngster finished ninth just a month ago in the state junior golf tournament, but Sunday he captured the state's No. 1 title—the 57th Ohio amateur championship.

Bourne, a sophomore at the University of Houston, did it with a startling 2 and 1 victory in the final 36-hole over 44-year-old Dan Carmichael of Columbus, 1960 champion and favorite all the way through the week-long, 180-hole grind.

Carmichael's usually magic putter failed him, aiding Billard Bob to his upset conquest. The Columbus architect, who played in the state meet seven years before his youthful foe was born, missed putts of four, seven, eight, five, three and four feet, and each lapse cost him a hole.

"After you miss the first one you begin wondering whether it's your stroke or the way you read the green," Carmichael said. "After you miss the second one, you lose your confidence."

Bourne, leading by four holes after 26 over the rain-drenched Elyria Country Club course, saw his lead dwindle twice to a single hole on the closing nine. But he hung on and a three-putt green and a missed four-foot putt by Carmichael kept him in front.

The youngster, whose lone previous victory of any note was in last year's Mid-American junior match play championship at Mansfield, threw his perky straw hat into the air and heaved his ball into the trees as the winning putt fell.

Bourne was two down at the end of nine holes, due to two birdie putts of 25 and 4 feet by Carmichael, but he won the 10th with a par and took three straight starting with the 15th as his veteran foe had a double bogey and then bowed to a pair of birdies. That gave Bourne a two-up edge at lunch time, and he increased it to four on the front nine of the afternoon as Carmichael's putter soured.

The new champ, whose full name is Robert Lester Bourne Jr., plans to go after the Western Junior title in Columbus in mid-August and may play in the Western Amateur at Benton Harbor, Mich.

Carmichael summed up his loss thus: "I not only lost the championship, but I lost $15. I hadn't expected to stay around here until the finish, so I paid my $15 dollar entry fee in a sports car race at Bellefontaine Sunday. I had to forfeit the money."

Substitute List Fails To Deter Romping Yanks

Lopez, Blanchard, Berra Shine with Super-Stars on Bench

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Consider the desperate plight of the New York Yankees.

They've been forced to use the likes of Hector Lopez and John Blanchard in the outfield in place of injured super-stars Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

They've pressed their aging coach, Yogi Berra, into duty as catcher and pinch hitter. They've had to put a youthful left-hander named Al Downing straight from the minors into their front-line pitching rotation.

But, somehow or another, the Yankees have struggled into a 6½-game edge in the American League—which is quite an edge for this time of the season, even for the perennial pennant winners.

The Yanks pushed into their big-lead of the year Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over their favorite opponents, the Kansas City Athletics.

A 14-hit attack led by Lopez, Berra and Blanchard powered the Yanks to an 11-6 victory in the opener, while Downing's four-hit pitching and the slugging of Elston Howard and Tom Tresh won the second game 5-0.

The Boston Red Sox kept their slim hold on second place in a split at Los Angeles, winning the second game 5-0 after the Angels took the opener 11-8. Chicago's third-place White Sox divided with Baltimore, nipping the Orioles 3-2 on Nellie Fox' clutch two-run single in the ninth inning following a 6-3 setback in the first game.

Minnesota unloaded a barrage of home runs and swept Cleveland 5-3 and 8-2.

The Detroit-at-Washington doubleheader was rained out. The Los Angeles Dodgers also jumped to a 6½-game lead in the National League by winning their seventh straight, 3-2 over Philadelphia in six innings. The rest of the doubleheader was washed out.

Also in the NL—St. Louis and Chicago split, the Cardinals winning 10-3 and the Cubs 7-3; Cincinnati beat Milwaukee 5-3, then lost to the Braves 7-6; and Houston dealt the New York Mets their 15th loss in a row, 8-3 in a doubleheader opener called in the eighth because of rain. San Francisco's scheduled doubleheader at Pittsburgh also was lost to rain.

The A's drew five walks off Bill Stafford in the first inning of the opener at Kansas City, taking a 4-0 lead, but the Yanks pounded back and finally made a rout of it with five runs in the eighth.

The 22-year-old Downing struck out 10 in his third shutout and fifth victory since being promoted from Richmond last month.

Chet Nichols and relief ace Dick Radatz combined for a five-hit shutout for the Red Sox in the second game at Los Angeles, while in the opener the Angels drew seven walks and every one became a run.

Fox brought the White Sox a split with the Orioles when he batted a bases-loaded single with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning.

The second game was marred by a beanbattering incident in which Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Orioles had to be restrained as he charged toward White Sox pitcher John Buzhardt. Jerry Adair was hit in the mouth and Brooks Robinson in the helmet by Buzhardt fast balls.

Homers brought Minnesota 11 of its 13 runs in the sweep over Cleveland. Reserve Don Mincher belted a grand slam and Harmon Killebrew hit a two-run shot in the second game, while Earl Battey, Zoilo Versalles and Vic Power connected in the opener. Jim Kaat and Bill Pleis were the winning pitchers.

Germantown GI, 19, Drowns in Kansas River

FT. RILEY, Kan. (AP)—A young soldier who drowned in the Kansas River is the son of a Germantown, Ohio, man, the Army says.

The victim, who went under after jumping into the river Saturday, was Pfc. Paul R. Isaacs, 19, of Ft. Riley. Forrest W. Isaacs of Germantown is listed as his father.

San Franciscan Never Took a Golf Lesson

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—National Public Links champion Bob Lunn has never taken a golf lesson and he has no plans to turn pro.

The 18-year-old San Franciscan, who until the weekend had won only a few northern California tournaments, blossomed into a national champion Saturday when he held off Steve Oppermann of South San Francisco 1-up in a 36-hole final.

"I just try to keep from bogeying any hole," said the soft-spoken, lanky youngster. The formula paid off as he carded fewer birdies than Oppermann, but won seven holes that his 21-year-old foe bogied.

The victory qualifies him for the national amateur championship—his next major appearance. He played the 6,702-yard par 36-36-72 Haggan Oaks Golf course in 38-34-72 Saturday morning and 36-37-73 in the afternoon.

After qualifying at nine-over-par, Lunn played his 132 holes of match play four-over-par.

Lunn hit the 450-yard final green in two, left his first putt four feet short, then, although "I don't know what was in my mind," he rapped the winning putt squarely into the cup.

Lunn plans to attend San Jose State College, probably on a golf scholarship. Beyond that, his golf plans are not set.

Yale's longest football trip next fall will be to Philadelphia to play Pennsylvania.

Yale football captain George Humphrey, a 177-pound center, also takes part in boxing and lacrosse.

Berra Gives Yanks New Lift with Hits

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Yogi Berra, 38 years young, is on a hitting streak that gives the New York Yankees a lift when they need it most, with Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris on the shelf.

This doubtless is what the Yanks had in mind when they kept him on the active list as a player-coach. Berra is making the decision look good, with a 10-for-18 spurge in his last five games, raising his batting average as a part time performer to .304.

Berra drove in eight runs and slugged two homers and two doubles in the streak.

Berra stroked a double and two singles, drove in a run, scored once and caught the game as the Yanks beat Kansas City 11-6 Sunday.

PGA Looks Tough To New Zealander

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Bob Charles, the lanky New Zealander who became the patron saint of left-handers everywhere when he won the British Open, can't see himself repeating the trick in the National PGA here this week.

Charles arrived Sunday night, weary from 72 holes of pressure golf in two days during which he dropped about six pounds from his already spare frame.

"I don't think I'll have much chance here," said the only south-paw ever to win a major golf championship. "The weather was very good in England and now I must try to adjust to the Texas heat. Also, I have to adjust from the small English ball to the American ball and I'll be playing on a new course. It's quite a combination to beat."

Swaps, sire of Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay, still holds four Hollywood Park track records.

Reds, Braves Split Pair Of Games

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds and the Milwaukee Braves took turns Sunday jolting each other a bit further from the National League lead by dividing a doubleheader.

The Reds now are in fifth place ½ games off the pace, while Milwaukee is 9½ games behind in sixth place.

Cincinnati, getting its first home runs at Crosley Field this month, took the first game 5-3 with John Tsiouris (5-3) the winning pitcher.

The Braves won the second game on Reds pitcher Joey Jay's ineffectiveness, 7-6. Jay, through bases on balls, a double steal off his slow curves and a wild pitch, gave Milwaukee a 5-2 lead in four innings.

Manager Fred Hutchinson was ordered out of the second game in the first inning for heckling from the bench.

First baseman Marty Keough broke the Reds' home run drought in the first inning of the opener when he drove the ball over the centerfield fence after Vada Pinson had doubled and Frank Robinson had walked.

In the third, Pinson, who got six hits in the two games, drove the ball over the rightfield bleachers.

5. Instruction

Wanted! —
from ages 18 to 52 Prepare now for U. S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months.

Government positions pay as high as $446.00 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

LINCOLN SERVICE, Dept. 326
Pekin, Illinois

I am very much interested. Please send me absolutely FREE (1) A list of U. S. Government positions and salaries; (2) Information on how to qualify for a U. S. Government Job.

Twins Club
Tribe Twice
With Homers

MINNEAPOLIS-St. Paul (AP)
—There are lots of ways to win a ball game, but the Minnesota Twins just seem to resort to the old-fashioned home run when they run up against Cleveland.

That's the way it happened Sunday as the beefy Twins clubbed five homers to sweep a doubleheader from the Tribe, 5-3 and 8-2. Roundtrippers accounted for 11 of the Twins' runs. Minnesota players have socked 21 homers in eight games with Cleveland this season. Last year, they hit 33 against the Tribe.

Zorro Versailles, the first man to bat, homered off Pedro Ramos in the first game.

The Indians tied it up in the second on a single by Max Alvis and Gene Green's double. Willie Tasby made it 2-1 with a homer off Twins' starter Jim Kaat. It went to 3-1 in the third when Alvis doubled, advanced on an infield out and scored on a wild pitch.

Minnesota took a 4-3 edge in the fourth when Early Batley slammed a three-run homer. Vic Power finished the slugging for the Twins in the eighth, homering off Jim Grant. It was Power's 20th since being traded by the Indians last year and his sixth against Cleveland.

Don Mincher put the nightcap on ice for the Twins with a grand slam homer off Barry Latman in the first inning. Of his three lifetime grand-slams, two have been against Cleveland.

Indianapolis Takes Lead in IL Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's a hard struggle to overcome an eight-game lead and take over first place, but the Indianapolis Indians, new leaders of the International League's Southern Division, have done just that.

The Indians defeated slumping
Northern Division leader Syracuse
4-3 Sunday night and moved into the Southern Division lead as Atlanta dropped a doubleheader to Arkansas, 10-3 and 3-0.

Jacksonville defeated Richmond
6-2 and Columbus beat Rochester
8-3 in other games Sunday. Buffalo's doubleheader at Toronto was rained out.

Columbus handed Rochester its 11th loss in its last 13 games with two four-run innings Steve Blass went the route for the Jets' victory, fanning 10 and raising his record to 5-7. Bill Short took the loss. Joe Altobelli hit a two-run homer for Rochester.

Dixie Girls Win
Tennis Crowns

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio. (AP) The singles champions of the Western Tennis Association's girls tourna-

Deer Creek Bid Invitations Slated Soon

Invitations to bid will be issued soon by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers pertaining to foundation investigation for dam and outlet works for the proposed Deer Creek Reservoir project.

The announcement was made today by Congressman William H. Harsha, Ohio Sixth District. Issuance of the bid invitations is scheduled about July 25.

The work will be located in Pickaway County about 20 miles west of here, according to Harsha's report. The Deer Creek project, along with other similar programs in the Scioto River Basin, has been under extensive study for several years.

The foundation investigation and dam outlet work will consist of: 1. drive sampling overburden, 1,500 lineal feet; 2. overburden drilling, 100 lineal feet; 3. six-inch core drilling, 2,400 lineal feet; 5. undisturbed sampling, 275 lineal feet; 6. pressure testing, 750 lineal feet.

Cost estimate of the work is $25,000. Bids are scheduled to be opened Aug. 15.

Repeal of $18 Trailer Tax Ups Receipts

Repeal of the $18 house trailer tax in favor of assessment upon value at the local tax rate, brought increased state-wide collections during calendar 1962, State Auditor Roger W. Tracy said today.

In Pickaway County the house trailer tax produced $10,762. Statistical data filed with Tracy by the various county auditors show that last year, the first year of repeal, gross collections were $945,620, up $104,932 over the previous high of $936,688 during 1961.

Montgomery County maintained first place in collections of the tax which totaled $71,370 against $60,030 in 1961. Cuyahoga County was second with collections of $67,241, compared with $50,835 in 1961.

While Franklin County dropped from second to third place with revenues of $60,000 against $51,119 during the previous year. Neither Hamilton nor Geauga Counties reported any collections.

With deductions of $36,625 for auditors' fees and expenses and another $20,128 for treasurer's fees there remained a balance of $888,868 for distribution to the political subdivisions.

Greatest share, totaling $655,344 or 73.3 per cent, went to the schools. Other disbursements included: counties, $102,553; municipalities, $63,997; townships, $55,966, while the state retained $6,025 for the servicing and retirement of Korean Conflict bonus bonds.

First Women Pilots Awaited At Powder Puff Finish Line

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Weather permitting, the first finishers in the 17th annual Powder Puff Derby were due to land at Atlantic City Airport in mid-morning after a night's stopover in Dayton, Ohio.

Nine planes in the all-women, coast-to-coast airplane race made it as far as Dayton Sunday but were prevented from pushing on to the finish here by rain and strong winds along the East Coast.

Of the 34 other planes still in the race, 19 stopped over in Springfield, Ill., 7 in Kansas City, Kan., 4 in Farmington, N. M., and 4 in LaJunta, Colo.

The first finishers are not necessarily the winners, since standings are determined by a formula involving ground speed and a "par speed" handicap, which takes into account the performance capability of various models of aircraft.

The top two planes in the standings Sunday night were in Springfield, Ill., and the third place craft was in La Junta, Colo.

Elaine Loening of San Francisco was in first place, Bernice T. Steadman of Flint, Mich., second and Nancy Lynam of Alameda, Calif., third.

The only Ohioan still in the race, Jean M. Bonar of Mansfield, spent Sunday night in Springfield, Ill.

Two other Ohioans, Harriet Wladyska and Patricia Hange, both of Jefferson, disqualified themselves at Monticello, Utah, after their planes developed fuel pressure trouble.

The women started their 2,500-mile flights Saturday from Bakersfield, Calif., and under the rules fly only during daylight hours. The planes must stay overnight at designated airports across the country.

More than $5,000 in prize money and merchandise await the women fliers at the National Aviation Experimental Center here.

America Seen 'Empty Shell' By Negro Aide

CLEVELAND (AP)—Roy Wilkins, national executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, says America will be an empty shell if Congress doesn't pass President Kennedy's civil rights proposals.

He told a crowd of about 12,000 at a rally at Municipal Stadium Sunday that if the legislation is not passed:

"There won't be, in the moral and spiritual sense, an America for them (Congress) to represent. There will be only an empty shell without a heart or soul."

The rally and a preceding march in the downtown section were sponsored by the United Freedom Movement, made up of 60 different organizations, many of them church groups.

Wilkins answered criticism made last week against the rally by saying:

"Nobody should write an editorial saying because you don't have things as bad as in Mississippi, you shouldn't have a freedom march in Cleveland. Cleveland is not yet heaven."

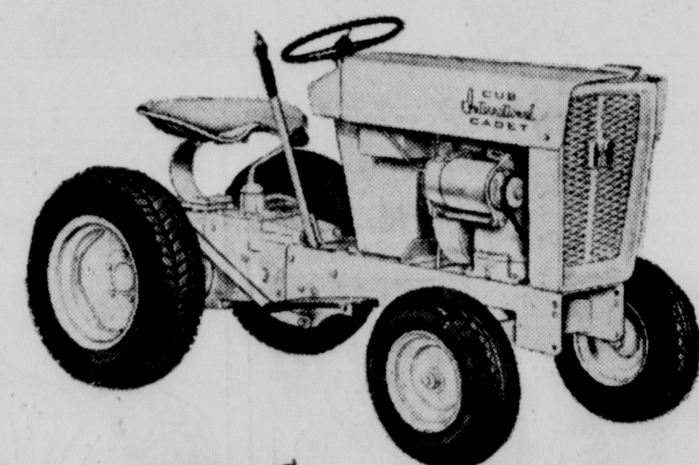

Wilkins asked the crowd to let their congressmen know they want the President's civil rights program passed.

He called Ohio Sen. Frank J. Lausche "one you've got to watch," and the junior senator, flies off once in a while, but he votes right."

Famous 'General' To Be Here For about 3 Hours Thursday

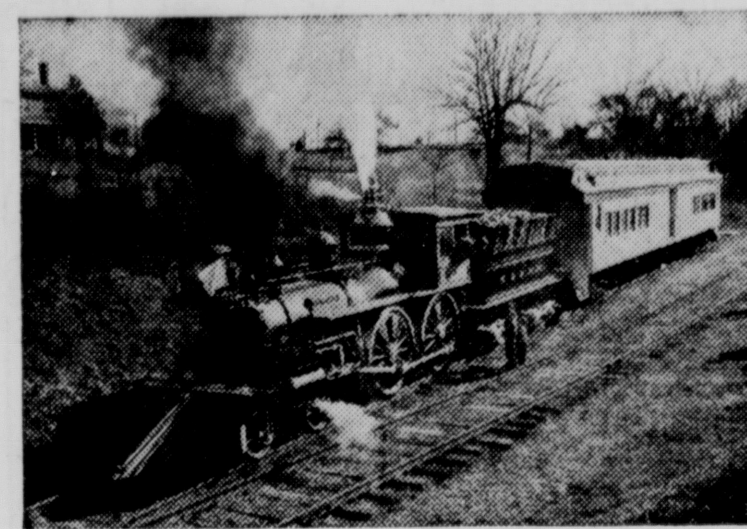

The famous Civil War locomotive "The General" will be in Circleville Thursday.

Final plans for an area tour and exhibition of the noted locomotive were announced today in Portsmouth by A. S. Tabor, superintendent for the Norfolk & Western Railroad. The engine is due for a stay of about three hours in Circleville.

The train will be on public display from 9 a. m. to noon at the N&W freight station here. Then it will head for Chillicothe where it will be on view from 2 to 9 p. m. at the freight station there.

The N&W scheduled calls for "The General" to depart, under its own power, from Columbus at 7 a. m. Thursday. It will stop at Ashville for water at 7:45 and depart at 8:30 for Circleville.

MAYOR RICHARD PENN and several other local officials and civic heads are scheduled to meet the train at Ashville at 8:30 a. m. and board it for the trip to Circleville.

The historic railroad engine and museum car are touring the state in observance of the Civil War Centennial under auspices of the Ohio Historical Society Civil War Centennial Commission and the Railroad Community Service Committee.

On Friday at 7 a. m. the train will depart for Waverly where it will be exhibited from 9 to 11 a. m. at the N&W passenger station. Heading for Portsmouth, it will make intermediate stops at Piketon at 11:25 a. m. and at Lucasville at 12:20 p. m. At the latter stop it will again receive water, leaving at 1:20 p. m.

Upon arriving in Portsmouth, it will go on display at the N&W passenger station from 3 until 9 p. m., and again on Saturday morning from 9 a. m. until noon.

The locomotive "General" was catapulted to fame early on the morning of April 12, 1862, when it was stolen at Big Shanty, Ga., by a Union secret agent, James J. Andrews, and 19 Yankee raiders.

The story of that plot — and the hectic eight-hour chase that followed — has become

Wilmington-Born Musical Producer Dies at Age 80

NEW YORK (AP)—Russell Janney, Ohio-born theatrical producer best remembered for the Broadway musical "The Vagabond King" and author of a best-selling novel, "Miracle of the Bells," was found dead in his apartment Sunday. He was 80.

Police said Janney died of natural causes.

"The Vagabond King," which Janney also co-authored, was presented in 1925. It had a Broadway run of 508 performances, was played by seven road companies simultaneously and had recurrent revivals.

"Miracle of the Bells" was the story of a Broadway press agent who found that a publicity stunt could develop into a "miracle" that affected the lives of people in a Pennsylvania mining community.

Janney was born in Wilmington, Ohio.

The historic railroad engine and museum car are touring the state in observance of the Civil War Centennial under auspices of the Ohio Historical Society Civil War Centennial Commission and the Railroad Community Service Committee.

On Friday at 7 a. m. the train will depart for Waverly where it will be exhibited from 9 to 11 a. m. at the N&W passenger station. Heading for Portsmouth, it will make intermediate stops at Piketon at 11:25 a. m. and at Lucasville at 12:20 p. m. At the latter stop it will again receive water, leaving at 1:20 p. m.

Upon arriving in Portsmouth, it will go on display at the N&W passenger station from 3 until 9 p. m., and again on Saturday morning from 9 a. m. until noon.

The locomotive "General" was catapulted to fame early on the morning of April 12, 1862, when it was stolen at Big Shanty, Ga., by a Union secret agent, James J. Andrews, and 19 Yankee raiders. The story of that plot — and the hectic eight-hour chase that followed — has become

NAACP Demonstration In Cincinnati Delayed
CINCINNATI (AP)—A scheduled demonstration at the new Federal Building to protest job discrimination has been postponed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The local NAACP branch agreed to the postponement Sunday night. NAACP spokesmen accuse the contractor and unions of not hiring enough Negroes. The demonstration had been scheduled for noon today.

Wilmington-Born Musical Producer Dies at Age 80

NEW YORK (AP)—Russell Janney, Ohio-born theatrical producer best remembered for the Broadway musical "The Vagabond King" and author of a best-selling novel, "Miracle of the Bells," was found dead in his apartment Sunday. He was 80.

Police said Janney died of natural causes.

"The Vagabond King," which Janney also co-authored, was presented in 1925. It had a Broadway run of 508 performances, was played by seven road companies simultaneously and had recurrent revivals.

"Miracle of the Bells" was the story of a Broadway press agent who found that a publicity stunt could develop into a "miracle" that affected the lives of people in a Pennsylvania mining community.

Janney was born in Wilmington, Ohio.
